CITRUS SAP ~ SD Hybrid

Citrus Sap is a sativa dominant hybrid cross between Gorilla Glue #4 and Tangie, and offers a slow, creeping high that may only set in several minutes after smokers have savored its unique, rich flavor. Initial effects take the form of full-body relaxation, with most consumers reporting effects that can be very social, facilitating giddiness and camaraderie. Although Citrus Sap provides some mental stimulation, any cerebral activity takes the form of rambling daydreaming rather than an intense, analytical mindset. As dosage is increased, couchlock becomes more and more likely.
