Cobra Extracts Oil Cartridge 1.1g (1,100mg)

Cobra Extracts Vape Cartridges offer a convenient means of medicating, just attach our cartridge to any standard vape pen and smoke it. Since it is concentrated (typical ranges are 60-70% THC) much less is needed to produce the desired effect.

Unlike some other companies, we never add any additives or "cut" our vape cartridges with anything. Because of our unique process our vape cartridge oil maintains a flowing consistency, so you never have to deal with wasted medicine that won't wick in the cartridge. Our process ensures that every cartridge is 100% cannabis oil. Pure and Simple.

Live Resin Terp Sauce 1g

By The Green Joker

Diamond sauce, also known as terp sauce, is cured, or aged, live resin. As the product ages a process called “nucleation” occurs, and the cannabinoid starts to grow into crystals. Often called “diamond mining,” because THCA naturally forms into crystals and it can start to look like tiny diamonds. The diamond-like solid particles of the extract are called “High Cannabinoid Full Spectrum Extracts”, supplying anywhere from 90 to 99 percent THC/a content, resulting in a highly potent, highly flavorful, and extraordinarily aromatic extract.

Cobra Extracts SAP 1g (1,000mg)

Our dabs offer traditional dabbers the option to enjoy the benefits of CO2 extraction.

Produced all naturally with no solvents, our unique process allows us to extract high potency without sacrificing critical terpenes. We take pure CO2 oil and naturally purge excess water, leaving only a beautiful cannabis oil. Because the oil is not further refined, it maintains a less oily consistency than our other products. It can be pulled like any other dab, but unlike other dabs it's produced without any hard solvents. Taste the difference!
