

Certified Trading Card Association (CTCA)

Terms of Membership

By joining the CTCA, you agree to the following terms:

1. Eligibility

- Membership is open to individuals and businesses actively engaged in the trading card industry, subject to CTCA's validation and verification process.

2. Dues & Fees

- Members agree to pay annual dues as set by the CTCA. Failure to pay dues may result in suspension or termination of membership.

3. Member Obligations

- Members must comply with the CTCA Code of Conduct and all association policies.
- Members must provide accurate information during application and promptly update CTCA with any changes.

4. Disciplinary Actions

- CTCA reserves the right to investigate complaints and, if necessary, suspend or revoke membership for violations of the Code of Conduct, non-payment, or providing false information.

5. Use of CTCA Name & Logo

- Members may use the CTCA name and logo only in accordance with CTCA's branding guidelines and only while in good standing.

6. Termination of Membership

- Members may resign at any time by notifying CTCA in writing. Dues are non-refundable.
- CTCA may terminate membership for cause, including violations of these terms or the Code of Conduct.

7. Limitation of Liability

- CTCA is not liable for any business losses or damages arising from membership, participation, or association activities.

8. Amendments

- CTCA reserves the right to amend these terms and the Code of Conduct at any time. Members will be notified of changes via email or official communications.
