Do you like sport?

Yes, I'm really into sport. I play basketball at the local court every evening. I love to compete and hang out with my friends.

Do you often watch sport on TV?

Yeah, I watch the English Premier League games on TV with my friends. I'm a big Manchester United fan. We argue and make bets with each other about who will win each game. I would love to watch the NBA games, but no channel shows it here.

What is the most popular sport in your country?

The most popular sport is definitely football. Vietnamese people can be pretty crazy about it. The national football team recently won the Suzuki Cup and there were huge celebrations across the country.

How do most people in your country keep fit?

Most people go to the gym to stay in shape. These days, a lot of people in my country are eating too much junk food, so they workout in order to lose weight.

Compete: to try to win.

Fan: it means to admire and can be used to talk about a sports team.

(make) a bet: to agree to pay if one's guess about a future event is wrong.

Stay in shape: to keep fit.

Workout: an exercise session.
