WHY BELIEVE THE BIBLE? PART I

All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness 2 Timothy 3:16

We believe, teach, and confess that the Bible is the only rule and norm according to which all teachings should be evaluated. It is our supreme authority in all matter of faith and life and we believe that the bible is the inspired Word of God without errors. We can't be Christian without believing in Christ and the way we know of Christ is from His Word. So then the question remains, how do you know that the scriptures can be trusted? Many think that creation is a myth, that we never crossed the red sea, and that Jonah was just a fable. What are we to think? For us, we know they can be trusted because they are the Word of God and God does not lie. But because of that, there is natural evidence that we can see why the Bible IS reliable and CAN be trusted. Let's look at some of the facts that exist outside of the Scriptures.

Historical Accuracy

Many times, critics find problems with claims the bible makes. Critics had an issue with the Hittites of the Old testament and Pontius Pilot in the New. The critics claimed they were never real! But then a monument was found in the 19th century proving the Hittites were real and a stone was found in the 20th with the name of Pilate on it! That's awkward! Of course, we do not need science to prove the bible and we shouldn't look to it like a prophet to do so. But time and again, critics claim errors in the Bible and time and again get proven wrong. Outside of the Scriptures, we also have many non-Christian historians of the day who bear witness to Christ and confirm biblical events. We have non-Christian authors writing about the events of the crucifixion, especially the darkening of the sky, we have them writing about the death of Christ, and we have them writing about the early Christians. One of these non-Christian historians is a man named Josephus who was born around 38 AD and wrote his history book in about 93 AD. What is remarkable is that he recorded accounts in his history about John the Baptist, Saint James, and Jesus! He speaks of John who was killed by Herod "though he was a good man and had exhorted the Jews to lead righteous lives, to practice justice towards their fellows and piety towards God, and so doing to join in baptism" (Antiquities 13:3). And Josephus even speaks of Jesus! He says Jesus was "condemned him to be crucified and to die. And those who had become his disciples did not abandon his discipleship. They reported that he had appeared to them three days after his crucifixion and that he was alive". (Ant. 13:3)

There is another non-Christian historian named Tacitus who records the history of the crucifixion of Christ. He says there was a man called "Christ, who had been executed in the reign of Tiberius by the procurator Pontius Pilate." (Ann XV 44). One final non-Christian historian would be a man called Pliny who wrote a letter in 112 AD. He was sent to investigate this "new religion" and writes to his superiors that these Christians have a "habit of meeting on a certain fixed day before it was light, when they sang in alternate verses a hymn to Christ, as to a god, and bound themselves by a solemn oath, not to perform any wicked deed, never to commit any fraud, theft or adultery, never to falsify their word, nor deny a trust when they should be called upon to make it good; after which it was their custom to separate, and then reassemble to partake of food – but food of an ordinary and innocent kind. (Ep. XCVI). There are many more historians who didn't believe in Jesus as their savior, but because He lived in history, they write about the events of the bible. And in their writings, they all confirm the truth of the Scriptures so that even outside of the bible, we have historical accounts about the death and resurrection of Jesus! While such writers are interesting, of all of these non-Christian historical works, nothing compares with the reliability of the bible itself.

Copies of the bible

As you can see in the graph above, the bible has the most surviving copies of any other ancient document. Our Lord Jesus Christ was crucified about AD 33. The bible was certainly complete by the year AD 90 but many (including your Pastor) think it was complete before AD 70. That is a 40-60 year difference between event and book. Historically, that is huge. As you can see in the graph, the evidence for the reliability of the New Testament is so much greater than any other historic authors. While no one would dare question those other historic authors, they question the Scriptures because we hold them sacred.

As you can see in the chart, we have over 24,000 copies of the New Testament. But some of the other "history books" that we take as fact only have 10 like Caesar's Wars on the chart. For some reason, many take secular works of history as Gospel truth but they won't take the Gospels as history. It is a double standard only because we hold the bible sacred. But in fact we can be certain that "we have the prophetic word more fully confirmed, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts, knowing this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone's own interpretation. For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit" (2 Peter 1:19-21) and it is this word and this Holy Spirit who teaches us the truth about who Jesus is, the historical fact of what He has done, and the gift of whom He has made us to be.

FIRST LWML

First Lutheran LWML was called to order on Jun 8, 2022 by President Martha Pearson. Our opening devotion by Brenda Meyer was "On Wings of a Eagle" taken from the book "By The Way". Our Bible lesson "Last" from Lutheran Woman's Quarterly, spring 2022, was studied and discussed as to the many ways "Last" was used in so many ways of Christ's time.

Lorene Strahm thanked all for the flowers, and was most happy they stayed beautiful for her birthday. Ruth Swart, secretary, called the roll, which was answered by 8 members, telling about an article they read in the spring Quarterly. Ruth read the minutes from the May meeting. Carole Feek passed the treasurer's report. The minutes and treasurer's report were approved as read. Mites and dues were collected.

Tami Rutten gave a report on VBS. Pastor Kinney had wrote and planned the sessions "The Lion and The Lamb"

Discussion to do something for Pastor and Mrs. Kinney and baby. Tami made a motion to invite them to our July meeting and present them with a gift, 2nd by Karen Kohlmeier. Motion carried.

Tami reminded everyone above the ongoing collection for the Orphan Train Gathering. A box has been placed in the church for the gatherings.

Our lesson for July: "Home Abounds", page16 from Lutheran Woman's Quarterly summer 2022 page 16. Roll call will be "Where were you born?"

Closing was all repeating "The League Pledge".

Ruth Swart, Secretary

ST. PAUL DORCAS

The June meeting of the St. Paul Dorcas Society was held on June 5, 2022 in the church basement. Ten members were present for the meeting.

Kathy Heiniger called the meeting to order. Cindy Manche led the Bible study from the spring 2022 LWML Quarterly, entitled, "Balancing Life's Challenges" by Vickie Emery.

Kathy called the business meeting to order. The May minutes were approved as read. Evan Brockoff gave the treasurer's report. The treasurer's report was accepted.

There was no unfinished business and no new business.

We had our society offering.

The next meeting will be July 3, 2022 with the hostess being Rosalie Mellenbruch. We closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Pastor Hemmer is the husband of (in his opinion) the most wonderful woman in the world, the father to the five most delightful children he's ever met, the pastor of Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church in Fairview Heights, Illinois, assistant to president of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, a wannabe farmer, maker of some things, fixer of some other things, grower of beards, and general curmudgeon. His big truck is probably a sign of his insecurity.

74th Convention of the LCMS Kansas District

The 2022 Kansas District Convention was held June 9th and 10th in Topeka, Kansas. The convention was led by the Reverend Justin Panzer.

President Panzer stated that the district's theme for the 74th convention was: Proclaim, Teach and Share. The theme is based on the Bible passage 1 Peter 2:9-10. "But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy."

Proclaim-Teach-Share

Many of us were baptized shortly after our birth so that we could be a child of God. Now, we live as baptized members of Christ who are to abide in His word. By abiding in God and His word, He commands us to share our faith with others. This includes providing resources for youth and adults, motivating them to come to church, involving them in activities and equipping them with the things that they need in their spiritual life. In Romans 12:5, Christ tell us, "So in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others."

One might ask how can we do that? Christ will always equip His people with the talents they need so that His body may be built up in them. He tells His people to go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit; teaching them to obey everything He has commanded them to do. These words assure us that Christ is with us always, even until the end of the age.

Pastor Roy Akins, editor of the Lutheran Witness expanded on the life of the Christian. He stated that being a Christian can be very difficult, but as-long-as we pray and lean on the Lord Jesus Christ, the more we will show praise, honor, and glory to God.

To build the church, it must be built upon Christ. As we all know, today, many churches have fallen because something or someone else has replaced God. People want to pick and choose what they want to do and when they do it. They are searching for something that will make them feel good about themselves, inside and out. If one thing doesn't work, they move on to another to find their satisfaction. They may also search for material things to make them feel satisfied. Pastor Akins gave the following examples: Going camping, going to ballgames, going to concerts, or just sleeping-in etc. People need to realize that Christ is the only one who can truly satisfy their need. Christ is the foundation of the church, and He is the only one who can satisfy the inward desires that we may be searching for.

However, although Christ is the foundation of the church, He is also the stumbling block. That is because some people refuse to listen to God. They think they can do all things by themselves and don't need God. When we see this happening, it is very important that we witness to these people as God wants all people to be saved.

As Christians, we have a mission to proclaim the message of salvation. We can witness faithfully to people, share the gospel, encourage baptism and let others know that by receiving Holy Communion, we receive redemption by the means of God's grace.

We can practice witnessing by starting the procedure in our own homes. We can pray with our children, teach them prayers, ask and answer questions that relate to the catechism and the Bible. We can also read Biblical stories to them. By doing these things, it will make it easier for us to talk to others about our Christian faith. In Mark 16:15, Jesus tells us to go into other places to talk about God and our faith. And He said to them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation."

The district also wants to foster and promote Christian education in the congregation, so that children, youth, and adults may grow in their faith, knowledge and understanding of God's word, thereby equipping, encouraging, and empowering them to proclaim the Gospel in their lives. In addition, the congregations should provide a "caring ministry" which will respond to the special needs of all people.

Pastors and lay people of the church are encouraged to reach out to others, whether it be in church or the community. We need to promote Bible study, visitations, and opportunities to spend time with people. This doesn't always need to be accomplished by going to peoples' homes. We can also reach out by meeting people in neutral places such as restaurants, libraries, or coffee shops.

However, Pastor Akins reintegrated that we Lutherans need to stand behind our principles and not change our ways to fit what other people want or think. We are to confront the things that try to separate us from the preaching of God's word and live with knowing that God will never give up on His church. God wants us to be known as people of mercy, care, and love, working together to bring and keep God's word in the church. We are reminded in John 13:35 "By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

Although I have addressed teaching and witnessing, I just want to reintegrate that to be a faithful witness, we need to know faith and live by faith. Paul tells us in the first chapter of Philippians verses 27-29, "Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in the one Spirit, striving together as one for the faith of the gospel without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved—and that by God. For it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in him, but also to suffer for him.

I have only touched on a portion of the convention, but I have to say that it was well worth my time and effort. If you ever have the chance to attend the District Convention, please consider going. You won't be disappointed.

I would like to thank the 4 congregations for selecting me to be the lay delegate and representing our churches.

Carol Walter,
Lay delegate from the NEK Partnership
