From the Pen of the Pastor

Trust the Process

Dear Saints of the Northeast Kansas Lutheran Church Partnership. Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, Amen.

When I was younger I had a pastor who suddenly announced to our congregation that he was going to soon retire. I expected we'd have a retirement pot-luck party, some gag gifts and that he'd have a great send off. It wasn't like that.

His retirement get-together was what you might call 'bitter-sweet.' It was bitter in that we were all deep down sad that he was leaving us; even though we were, at the same time, happy that he would now, in his retirement years, have some time for himself and an opportunity to spend more time with loved ones. We were preoccupied with our thoughts on how we'd ever replace him and how long that might take.

Now, in view of my own impending retirement, I better understand how he must have felt as he was retiring from full time Church Work at Trinity. I now know things were probably as bitter-sweet for him as they are for me...and how his excitement at the opportunity he was seeking through retirement to spend more time with family and friends was offset by the sorrow he must have felt over leaving those brothers and sisters in Christ he had grown so fond of over the years. Bitter-sweet is, I think, accurately describes retirement. But, all things do have their season.

Despite some inherent sadness, I must admit that since announcing my retirement, I've been pleasantly overjoyed by the love and appreciation expressed by so many of you. You've shared memories of times we've spent together, quite often, intimate moments surrounding baptisms, confirmations, counseling, weddings, deathbed visitations and funerals. Some of you have thanked me for my service to you and your loved ones over the years; but, it is I who must Thank You, and God above, for having provided me the opportunity I've had to be your pastor these past fifteen years.

But, time does moves on and nothing lasts forever. Church members and Church leaders come and go. Even though we'd like to freeze certain moments in time, the world doesn't allow us that luxury. It is time for me to say, "Goodbye Northeast Kansas Lutheran Church Partnership. But know this...my time here has been an extra blessing because you are a unique entity, one I am proud to have been a part of. The very word "Partnership" encapsulates what we have become... 'Christian Partners who have been joined together as both recipients and proclaimers of God's Grace for the purpose of individually and collectively sharing the Gospel in our respective communities.'

What now? God only knows. We must faithfully and prayerfully wait for God to disclose that. No matter what, you know that the Lord who brought you together all those years ago will not abandon any of you now. Whether you remain a quad Parish or form some other sort of partnership, He will be with you and see that you are fed and nourished through His Word and Sacraments. If change is necessary, remember that it is most often good for us in the long run. Remember too that 'change' often comes through a divinely established 'process' and that it doesn't occur according to 'our' time table; but rather God's.

Yes, 'Change,' quite frequently comes as a 'process, as we see in 1st Samuel 16 when God came to Samuel and told him, "I've rejected Saul as king. Go to the tribe of Jesse where I have chosen one of his sons to be king." Now Samuel was a prophet, but it didn't take a prophet to assume that anointing another king while Saul was on the throne might not go all that well. Thus Samuel responded to God that he would be killed if Saul found out. God then instructed that he, "Take a cow and put together a sacrifice and invite Jesse and his sons to that sacrifice." Samuel did. And as planned, Jesse, his sons, and the whole town showed up to watch it. As Samuel watched Jesse's sons arrive, he had a hunch about who Yahweh had in mind to be the new king.

In Verse 6 Scripture tells us that, "When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab and thought, "Surely the Lord's anointed stands here before the Lord." Samuel apparently rationalized that since Eliab was the oldest and of impressive stature that he would be the logical choice, as well as first in line to receive his father's inheritance. But the Lord said to Samuel, "Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The Lord does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart."

So, one after the other, each of Jesse's sons passed in front of Samuel. How about this one? No.

This one? Nope. This one? Nope. Finally, after all seven had passed in front of him, Samuel asked Jesse, "Are there any more?!"

To that Jesse's answered: "There is still the youngest." "He is tending the sheep." "Send for him, Samuel said; we will not sit down until he arrives."

So, Jesse sent for his youngest son, David, and had him brought in. He was glowing with health and had a fine appearance and handsome features. Then the Lord said, "Rise and anoint him; this is the one."

Now, after the anointing, one would assume that David would take the throne immediately...that is what would happen if we were in charge or if it was a human Hollywood production; however, God's process isn't always as predictable as ours. Saul was not instantly kicked off the throne, and David was not immediately carried in on the shoulders of his people to begin ruling that day. Instead, Samuel anoints David, and then the story stops for a while. "Why, you ask?" ...Because, this change was part of a 'process.'

When this part of the story ends, the Bible tells us that David went back to watching the sheep. If you are tempted to say... "Well, that doesn't make any sense! Why would God anoint him and then send him back to where he had him before? What was the point of anointing David before He was ready to make David king? ... don't.

For God anointed David well before he was ready to appoint him King because God wanted to take David through a 'process...' through a series of actions or steps, in order to achieve a particular goal. David's anointing was essentially a 'reminder' of the promise that the 'process' would fulfill.

God knew that some things needed to happen in David's life before he could be king. Likewise, there are some things that need to happen in our lives, and perhaps in your walking together in this Partnership, before you can step into what God has in store for you.

David could easily have developed an attitude in his waiting. But, he doesn't. Why? Because he knew that God was using the process to bring His plan to fruition.

Believe in God's promises and His processes. Don't be lured into unbelief by people who say, "But, I had faith, and God didn't do it." Or by people who say they're frustrated because they thought God said it would happen and it hasn't yet. Or by people who say, I 'had' faith.

Such faithless or past-tense statements reveal a terrible ignorance concerning how faith works. If you think you can have faith one moment, and have your faith go away when nothing happens, it's not faith at all. Faith is what keeps you going until you see God do what He intends to do. Faith causes you to say, "I may not have seen it yet, but I am sure I will!"

I don't know what God has in store for me in the weeks, months or years ahead, but in His time, I will. I've had His anointing, but remain waiting my next appointment. In a similar way, David had the anointing to be king, but God hadn't yet given him his appointment.

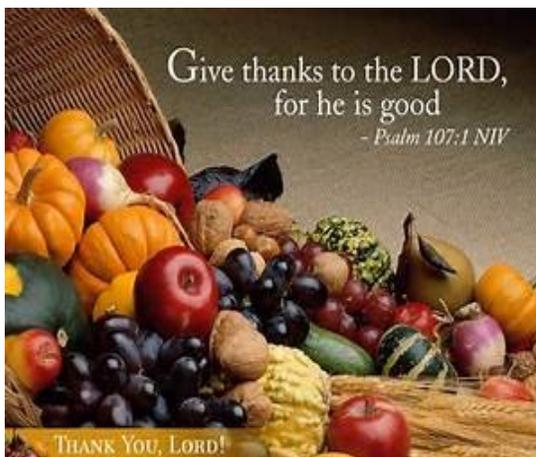

That David could see the anointing. That other people could see the anointing. That everyone was watching when Samuel poured the oil over David's head and anointed him as King, that is where things became sticky. When you can see your anointing; that you've been set apart, that you're a better salesperson than anyone else, that you're a great singer, that you have influence, that you can counsel, that you can lead others and that other people can see it, too...people who tell you how talented you are and how far you will go...that is when you are tempted to think, "Well, if I can see it, and others can see it, why can't God see it?! What is He waiting for?"

He could be waiting for your vision to improve...for your comments betray you and show that you can't see the forest for the trees...you can't see what is happening all around you because you are focusing on a light at the end of a tunnel... that you going through a process in which He is preparing you for what's in store.

If you can't see what God is doing in and around you because you are focused on something else, you can entirely miss out on what God has planned for you.

So, dear friends, keep your focus on God and wait for Him. Trust in Him only. He hasn't ever failed you. Fellow Redeemed, it has been an honor. Thank You and God Bless You all!

Forever Yours in Christ,
Pastor Mike

ZION LWML

The regular meeting of the Zion Lutheran LWML was called to order by Lela Middendorf on October 11, 2022 with 5 members present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved as read, and the treasurer's report was given by Diane Davis.

A thank you note was read from Dean Bailey for the quilt presented to him in thanks for all he does at the church. A letter was read from the First Baptist Church regarding the Community Thanksgiving Dinner next month. Sharon moved and Barb seconded that we donate $100 for this dinner. Motion carried.

Twenty-six ladies and two pastors were in attendance at the NE Zone Fall Event hosted by Zion on October 8. We had a fun morning. We will plan to host coffee and donuts on Sunday, October 30.

Just a reminder that everyone should read their Kansas District Sonshine to know what is going on in the state, and a note that all of the bible studies in the LWML Quarterly relate to prayer.

The next meeting will be held on Nov. 15 rather than Nov. 8 because of the General Election. The meeting was adjourned with prayer.

Anne Arnesen
Secretary

FIRST LWML

The October 5, 2022 Bible study of First Lutheran opened with Brenda Meyer devotion "A Small Voice"

Tami Rutten, President, had opening prayer for our Bible study "A Voice of Strength and Peace" from the Lutheran Woman's Quarterly, Summer, 2022. Carole Feek played the piano with the group singing "Before you, Lord We Bow". Our lesson was about "Faith Makes You Strong"

Roll call was answered with 7 members telling "if and how they decorated for fall" Ruth Swart, secretary, read the minutes of the September meeting. Carole Feek, treasurer, explained the treasurer's report. Both were approved. Mites and dues were collected.

Carole Feek had a written report that told of coming events: Christ Lutheran Church, Topeka, will be the pickup place for Orphan Grain Train. We have 43 kits for them. Several have been placed locally. Our NE Zone LWML Fall event is at Zion, Hiawatha, October 8, 9:00am to noon. Thank you's were received from the Kohlmeier family and Kids Closet.

Tami had checked with the Sabetha Food Pantry on what was needed. Discussion on a list of what needed done each week. Carole and Tami will make a updated list and see who would care to help and what was needed.

Our study for November will be from Lutheran Woman's Quarterly, Fall 2022— "Lord Teach Me To Pray" page 16. Our meeting closed with all saying the League Pledge.

Ruth Swart, secretary

St. Paul Dorcas Society

October 2, 2022

President Nancy Manche called the meeting to order. Nancy read the LWML devotion, "Harvest Time-Ready! Set! Go!" by Edie Norris. Roll call was answered by 12 members and 4 guests.

The September minutes were read. They stand approved as read. The treasurer's report was accepted.

In unfinished business, Cindy Manche volunteered to read for our LWML Sunday next week.

The Orphan Grain Train Oct. 14, 2022 pickup will be taken down to Topeka by either Raymond Thieme or Kathy Heiniger and Karen Bauman.

In new business, you may give a monetary donation to Orphan Grain Train for hurricane Ian and Thrivent will add $1 for every dollar donated up to $250,000.

There was discussion about poinsettias. Becky Meyer will bring some silk poinsettias to look at next meeting. Sharon Meyer requested to have real flowers on the altar.

Announcements-

Next month we will have a Bible study from the fall LWML Quarterly.

November 26, 2022 we will decorate the church for Advent.

We collected our LWML mite offering and our society free will offering. We closed with the Lord's Prayer. We packed health and hygiene kits for Orphan Grain Train. Refreshments were provided by Karen Bauman.

Secretary- Cindy Manche

FIRST PRESCHOOL

October has been a fun and busy month in Preschool! We have worked hard on art projects to make our room ready for fall. Pastor Kinney taught us Bible stories about Moses. We are very blessed and thankful for the volunteers that serve in our classrooms. We have several moms that help us. We appreciate Marcia Spellmeier helping us too.

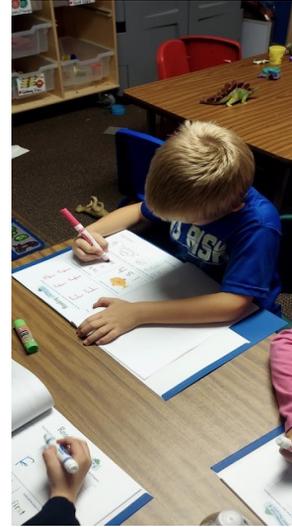

Our new playground is progressing! The material has arrived for the playground surface and the playground equipment will be here at the end of October. There was a workday on Saturday, October 8th to enlarge the fence. Many thanks to the group that helped!

We are excited to have Donuts with Dad, a field trip to Mulberry Pond Pumpkin Patch, and our Halloween parties this month.

Thank you for your continued support!

ST. PAUL PRESCHOOL

We have had such a great start to the school year. This month we are learning about fairy tales and nursery rhymes. We have enjoyed making wizard wands, unicorns, knocking humpty dumpty off the wall, and making muffins. The students have loved coming 5 days a week and enjoy working on writing their letters as well as match, pattern and look and find worksheets.

Pastor has worked on songs, learning the books of the Bible and stories about Noah and the Ark, Joseph and his colorful coat and Moses and the Plagues on Egypt.

We also had a great time at Mulberry Pumpkin Patch. We had beautiful weather as well as parents to enjoy it with.

I want to thank the person for covering the scholarships this year and we are working on a scholarship fund that can be donated to year round to cover such expenses.

Thank you everyone for helping our great program grow.
