

PARKING POLICY (St. John's Student Center)

1. Those sweet parking spots facing the building? Yep, they're all ours.
2. Good news: Parking here won't cost you a dime. You're welcome!
3. If you see an open spot, snag it—but only if you're hanging out at St. John's!
4. Planning to hit up classes or other campus shenanigans? Sorry, no parking here for that.
5. Want to park for free at ISU Parking? Come by after 4:30 p.m. or on weekends—no charge, no hassle.
6. Heads up: We can't babysit your car. Park at your own risk—St. John's isn't liable for any surprises.
7. Two spots are strictly for our tenants. Park there, and you might get towed. Not fun.
8. And that one spot in front of the side door? It's permanently off-limits. Don't even think about it unless you want your car to disappear.

If you want to park, you MUST:

1. Grab a parking pass (yes, we're fancy like that).
2. Fill in the chart with your pass number, name, license plate, date, time in, and time out—because details matter.
3. Show off that pass by putting it in a visible spot in your car (pro tip: the windshield works great).
4. Return your pass when you're heading out—sharing is caring, folks.
