Q. 1. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions given below:

What is the ultimate challenge these days? The ultimate challenge is to make your mind ~~them~~ calm. and the ultimate solution is meditation. For a student, there can't be a more powerful technique to improve long ~~them~~ performance in studies than meditation.

Calm mind, better retention, better health, focus and concentration are the obvious benefits. When you practice meditation, you have a sense of well being, happiness and spiritual growth.

There are many types of meditation. The simplest is of course, focusing on breathing. Settle down in a cool place that has dim light and relatively quiet. All you need to do is to keep focusing on breathing. If you do it everyday, you will feel its magical effect.
