

POCKELL = COMMUNITY PRIDE & PROSPERITY

“While we were election opponents in 2024, I want citizens to know that Kris Pockell is a gentleman and conducted his campaign with class and civility.”

-WA Rep. Suzanne Schmidt

Kris Pockell

Candidate for Spokane Valley City Council

"As someone raised on the value of decency and hard work, I want Spokane Valley to embrace the strength and resilience that comes from a shared sense of vision and purpose when we work together to solve the problems facing our community."

Top Priorities

- Citizen Safety
- Economic Opportunity
- Attainable Housing

A SPOKANE VALLEY SON

Kris Pockell’s parents and family moved to and purchased a home in the Spokane Valley in 1989. Kris’ parents still live in that home where they raised him. Kris attended Adams Elementary, Evergreen Jr. High, and graduated from Central Valley H.S. ‘06.

KRIS MEANS BUSINESS

During high school, Kris worked at his parents’ saltwater aquarium store which they owned and operated from 2004-2015. His entrepreneurial spirit was inspired by his parents, who taught him what it takes to run a successful small business.

Early in his career, Kris worked in the legal field and as a machinist in local manufacturing companies. In 2016, he began his career as a software engineer.

Kris has launched several small businesses including a small beer distributorship, a software company, and a hot sauce manufacturing company that he owns with his wife and partner in life since 2016, Rebekah.

DEDICATION TO EDUCATION

Kris earned his Bachelor’s of Science in Software Development and Masters of Business Administration in IT Management from Western Governors University.
