

Meet the EYFS Team!

Little Learners:

My name is Tracy Cook and I have worked at Central for 15 years. I am the lead practitioner in Little Learners. I have a specialist interest in Drama. Outside of school I love dancing and performing and I enjoy putting on shows. Marie Kelly, Tracey French, Lindsay Tunn, Rebecca Maloney and Nicola Clark also work in our class.

Nursery:

My name is Mrs Elliott. I have been teaching for 7 years and have taught in most year groups. I have a particular interest in early phonics and early communication and language. I'm quite Musical. I lead a choir outside of school and play in a brass band. I love exploring the outdoors with my two children. My favourite book to read is 'Chicken Licken' because I love the rhyming.

My name is Mrs Bull. I have been teaching for fourteen years, mainly in Nursery, Reception and Year 1. I have fun working in Nursery with Mrs Elliott, Miss Candlish, Mrs Dawson and Mrs Patterson. When I am not in school I love to spend time with my husband and little girl.

Reception:

My name is Miss Neilly. I am currently in my 5th year of teaching in Reception and specialise in Early Literacy skills. When I am not teaching I enjoy running. I will be taking part in my 3rd half marathon this September and plan to complete my first full marathon next year. My favourite children's story books are Alfie and Annie-Rose by Shirley Hughes. Mrs Buller and Miss Bell also work in our class.

My name is Miss Edwards and I am one of the Reception teachers. This is my fourth year of teaching in Reception at Central Primary and I have a specialist interest in Early Numeracy skills. My favourite book to read is 'The Day the Crayons Quit' by Drew Daywalt. At the weekend, I enjoy spending time with friends and walking in the Northumberland countryside. Miss Bowart also works in our class.

My name is Miss Ainsley, I am one of the Reception Teachers at Central Primary School. This is my third year of teaching in Reception, and I have a specialist interest in Outdoor Play and Learning. My favourite book to read is 'Kitchen Disco' by Clare Foges. At the weekend, I enjoy walking my dog Eden along the beach and socialising with friends. Mrs Neal also works in our Class.

My name is Miss Campbell, and I am one of the Reception and Year 1 teachers at school. This is my fourth year of teaching at Central Primary and I have spent time in both Nursery and Reception. I have a special interest in speech and language and SEND. My favourite book to read is Giraffes Can't Dance by Giles Andreae and Guy Parker-Rees. At the weekend I enjoy walking with friends and spending time with my 4 year. Miss Cook, Miss Bell and Miss King also work in our Class.
