Model Code of Educator Ethics

Just look at one small part of the Code:

Principle III: Responsibility to Students

"The professional educator has a primary obligation to treat students with dignity and respect. The professional educator promotes the health, safety and wellbeing of students by establishing and maintaining appropriate verbal, physical, emotional and social boundaries."

As specifically as possible, describe what each of the following looks like, sounds like and feels like on the flip charts around the room.

- The professional educator has a primary obligation to treat students with dignity and respect
- The professional educator demonstrates an ethic of care by understanding students' values beliefs and cultural backgrounds
- The professional educator respects the dignity, worth and the uniqueness of each student as an individual
