

Economic and political change provokes fears and insecurities in racist, who benefits from the status quo. Thus, racist attempts to block progress of cultural/racial group.

Racism a pathological syndrome of deeply repressed fears, anxieties, and other emotional disorders.

Extreme form of ethnocentrism that uses racist attitudes and actions to prevent contact with certain racial/cultural groups.

Racism is a functional myth to sustain a color/caste colonial system within the United States.