

Lourdes Rosas Rasdall

Art was my first love and has been a driving force throughout my life. I was born in Cuba and after a short stint in Miami, FL, spent most of my childhood and adolescent years in Puerto Rico. College took me from the Caribbean to the Tampa Bay area, where I received my Bachelor of Arts from Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, FL. Soon after, I studied and practiced commercial art. My art took a backseat with a corporate job and raising a family, but eventually I returned to doing what I love most.

I find inspiration in nature and beauty in the details that are often overlooked as we rush by. I called the Florida Gulf Coast home for most of my adult life, until I moved to Eastern NC earlier in 2024. I am still exploring nature and life along the coastline, but now I also have the mountains, and four seasons of distinct colors.

Throughout my artistic journey, I have worked with different mediums, but I am primarily a watermedia artist. I paint what makes me happy and my art is an interpretation and celebration of the world as I see it: colorful, beautiful and bright. No matter the medium used, my signature is color.

www.lourdesrosasrasdall.com

facebook.com/LourdesRosasRasdall.artist

Instagram @lourdesrosasart