My dad was not a big talker or even a big communicator, but I do remember him writing me a few letters while I was in college. He would start the letters with, "I hope this finds you doing well". So... I hope (and pray) that this finds you doing well.

A special thanks to Paul Eekhoff for sharing the picture that you see below – it is really cool. A special thanks to you who are living this truth out every day – that is even more cool. When I speak to people from our two churches they are always talking about how someone gave them a call, or someone sent them a card, or someone did them a favor, or someone reached out to them in one way or another. This is being the church.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for continuing to be the church even in the middle of some trying times – for continuing to be the church especially in the middle of some trying times. The kind word and encouragement you offer is just what that person needs to get through the day.

Please prayerfully consider how you might continue to "be the church" for each other and for our community. The ministry that we share does not have to be something very big or something very expensive. The ministry is us doing what we can, where we are, for someone who could use a little help. Loving our neighbor – that is church.

May we each be filled with God's Holy Spirit. Pastor Bill
