

COTENZA

Volume 17082

Performance meets modern luxury and comfort in the Cotenza Collection. When you combine innovative stretch fabrics with sophisticated tailoring, you get the most versatile jacket a man can own. From business casual to a weekend away, these performance blends and natural stretch flannels will provide maximum comfort all-day long.

Available in stylish plaids, windowpane patterns, a selection of solids, as well as winter weight knits; the performance blends in this collection make a great travel-ready sport coat.

The Drago Rugby Flannel Super 130's mélange yarn solids are woven with natural stretch and have a luxurious cashmere hand. It's stain and water-resistant properties will always keep you looking neat and polished.

Formerly known as the iD Swacket, iD Sorrento is the new tailoring grade for the SWK garment. The Cotenza Collection is intended for use with the Sorrento tailoring grade only.
