WELCOME TO CALVARY

OUR WELCOME STATEMENT

Calvary United Methodist Church believes that all means all.

We open our hearts, our minds and our doors to all our neighbors. We gladly invite into our shared life all persons who seek a community of support where they can grow in God's grace. Regardless of your race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, ability, relationship status or background – you are God's beloved, and you are welcome here.

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

If this is your first time with us, welcome! We're so glad you're here. We'd love to get to know you better, so please stop by the Welcome Areas to learn more about our church family. You'll also find a Get Connected card in the back of the pews – feel free to fill one out so we can stay in touch. If you need a large-print Bible or hymnal, just ask one of our friendly greeters – we're happy to help.

FAMILIES WITH BABIES OR YOUNG CHILDREN

We welcome all of God's children to join us in worship – including our littlest ones! If it would be helpful, there's a Family Area at the back left of the sanctuary, complete with rocking chairs and toys to keep little ones comfortable and engaged.

LOCATION OF RESTROOMS

From the front exits of the sanctuary: (1) to the right, you'll find an accessible restroom and a baby changing table on the same level; (2) to the right and to the back, you will find women's and men's restrooms; (3) to the left, restrooms are located down the stairs, or an elevator is available by exiting the right side of the sanctuary and heading toward the back of the building.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON * Micah 6:1-8 NRSV

- 1 Hear what the Lord says: Rise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.
- 2 Hear, you mountains, the case of the Lord, and you enduring foundations of the earth, for the Lord has a case against his people, and he will contend with Israel.
- 3 "O my people, what have I done to you? In what have I wearied you? Answer me!
- 4 For I brought you up from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.
- 5 O my people, remember now what King Balak of Moab devised, what Balaam son of Beor answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the Lord."

- 6 "With what shall I come before the Lord and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?"
- 7 Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"
- 8 He has told you, O mortal, what is good, and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God?

Leader: The word of God, written by the people of God, for the people of God.

HYMN OF PREPARATION * . . . "For the Bread Which You Have Broken" — #614 UMH

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Leader: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, almighty God, creator of heaven and earth. You took the dust of the earth and breathed your life into it, making humankind in your image. Because of this act of creation and your breath that lives in our spirits, everyone is of sacred worth. Yet, from the very beginning of time, we have sought to tarnish that image. We have not seen each other with your eyes. We have not loved each other with your heart. When we have treated your sacred creation as unworthy, we not only severe our relationship with them, but also with you. Yet, you continued to be faithful in loving us. Faithful in sending your prophets throughout the ages to call us to repentance. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

People: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Leader: Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ. When we continued to worship our personal idols instead of you, you sent Jesus to teach us love you with all we have and all we are, not just giving you a portion of our hearts, but instead inviting you to come in and completely transform us. When we continued to harm one another, out of a desire to make ourselves appear more righteous, you sent us Jesus to teach us to sit and break bread together and love our neighbors as ourselves.

And when we continued to choose fear instead of faith, hatred instead of love, Jesus went to the cross to show us what love ultimately looks like, laying down your life for even those who do not love you in return. But that wasn't the end of the story. Three days later, Jesus rose from the grave to say that our hatred, our lack of love, does not have the final word. God's Kingdom will triumph.

On this day, we remember this gift of transforming love as we share together in this holy meal and tell its story anew- that on that night long ago, when Jesus gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, give it to his disciples, and said: "Take and eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these, your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we come together as your people, your Church, and offer our very selves into your hands in praise and thanksgiving, as a holy and living sacrifice, only made possible because of Christ's great sacrifice for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

People: Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Leader: Pour out your Holy Spirit on us anew this day, and on the bread and the cup. May they stand as tangible symbols for us of the love and new life you offer to us as you call us to a life of radical grace. Bind us together, Lord, not despite our differences but through them, as you weave us together as the beautiful body of Christ. May we joyfully serve beside our brothers and sisters in a way that reclaims the sacred worth and the breath of God that resides in us, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast all together at that great heavenly banquet.

Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and forever. And now with the confidence of being a child of God, we pray together:

People: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

All are welcome to receive the gift of Holy Communion. The bread we share is gluten-free so that all may participate. Please come forward at the direction of the ushers, take a piece of bread and dip it into the cup of grape juice.

A watched pot never boils, especially without gas. And without ingredients? No soup. No meal. No gathering.

This Lent, Calvary is turning on the heat and stirring something new. Soup and Community will be at the heart of our shared life as we launch Hey, Neighbor! Wednesday Dinners.

From Ash Wednesday, February 18 through April 1, join us for seven Wednesday evenings of free meals, fun activities and warm community. These dinners are for neighbors as well as Calvary friends—anyone who wants to connect and belong is welcome.

This is about more than soup. It is about connection, belonging and living out our mission. Calvary boldly proclaims: “You are God’s beloved and you are welcome here.”

Even if only a few neighbors come, it will be worth it if we give our hearts, our hospitality and our love.

This Sunday we'll share how you can help make this happen. The most important ingredient? You.

YOU ARE THE INGREDIENT HELP MAKE HEY, NEIGHBOR! HAPPEN

FEBRUARY 1, 2026

By Kenny Elliott, Calvary Lay Leader

Great soup doesn't happen by accident. It takes ingredients. It takes hands. It takes heart.

The Hey, Neighbor! Wednesday Dinners will only happen if we show up together—serving, welcoming and building community side by side.

This Lent, everyone is invited to be part of it: families, individuals, small groups, ministry teams, committees—and even friends who don't attend Calvary but want to serve.

How It Works

Each Wednesday dinner has two simple parts: the Meal and the Activity. We're inviting small groups, committees, and ministry teams to host one dinner and/or one activity during Lent.

- Hosting a meal includes making soup, setting up, serving, cleaning up, and offering hospitality.
- Leading an activity means creating a fun, welcoming experience—trivia, games, crafts, or conversation starters.

Individuals and families are welcome to sign up for any role.

Ways Anyone Can Help

- Make soup
- Host the meal
- Lead or assist with an activity

No role is too small.

Last year's Lenten Lift reminded us how powerful it is to gather around a simple meal. Starting with something small can create meaningful connection and grow into something lasting. That's how Calvary's Messiah began—and now it's a cherished Pittsburgh holiday tradition for many neighbors.

That's our calling again.

This year, we want to reach beyond our walls—through social media, local outreach, and personal invitations—to let our wider community know that Calvary is here, and that all truly means all.

But the most powerful invitation? Yours.

Invite a neighbor. Invite a friend. Invite a coworker or family member.

Bring your unique flavor. Bring your time. Bring your heart.

Sign up to help. Sign up to serve. Sign up to make soup.

And let's get cooking!
