ORDER OF WORSHIP

PRELUDE

WORDS OF WELCOME

CALL TO WORSHIP †*

Leader: Let us gather to listen deeply.
People: Word of God, speak.
Leader: Let us gather with childlike faith.
People: Ageless wisdom, reveal.
Leader: Word of God, speak.
People: Your servants are listening.

OPENING HYMN †* "Gather Us In" — #2236 TFWS

OPENING PRAYER †*

Gracious, loving God, pour your love into our hearts and lives. Bless us with such overflowing grace that your love might flow within us and through us. Be patient with our impatience. Calm us with your patient love in all of our encounters. Forgive us and fill us with your grace, that we might extend loving forgiveness to others. In your loving name, we pray. Amen.

COMMUNITY GREETINGS †

GATHERING SONG OF PRAISE †* . . . "Spirit of the Living God" — #393 UMH (Two Times)

Spirit of the living God, Fall afresh on me.
Spirit of the living God, Fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me.
Spirit of the living God, Fall afresh on me.

WORDS OF THE PROPHET * Jeremiah 1:4-10 NRSV

- 4 Now the word of the Lord came to me saying,
- 5 "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations."
- 6 Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy."
- 7 But the Lord said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a boy,' for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and you shall speak whatever I command you.
- 8 Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord."
- 9 Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth, and the Lord said to me, "Now I have put my words in your mouth.
- 10 See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant."

Leader: The word of God, written by the people of God, for the people of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL LESSON †* Luke 4:21-30 NRSV

- 21 Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."
- 22 All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, "Is this not Joseph's son?"
- 23 He said to them, "Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, 'Doctor, cure yourself!' And you will say, 'Do here also in your hometown the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum.' "
- 24 And he said, "Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in his hometown.
- 25 But the truth is, there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months and there was a severe famine over all the land,
- 26 yet Elijah was sent to none of them except to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon.
- 27 There were also many with a skin disease in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian."
- 28 When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with rage.
- 29 They got up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might hurl him off the cliff.
- 30 But he passed through the midst of them and went on his way.

Leader: The word of God, written by the people of God, for the people of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

SERMON "Unstoppable!" — Rev. Beth L. Nelson

HYMN OF PREPARATION * "Here, O My Lord, I see Thee" — #623 UMH

- Leader: God of mercy and justice, be with us.
- People: We lift our hearts to you, not because we have to, not because we are supposed to, but because it's how we respond to your unconditional love, because it feels good to know we are loved.
- Leader: As long as there have been people to tell them, our ancestors in faith have shared stories of your mercy.
- People: Of how you gave food to the poor, clothes to the naked, and shelter to the lost.
- Leader: And as long as there have been people to tell them, our ancestors in faith have shared stories of your mercy.
- People: Of how you gave freedom to the enslaved, opportunity to the outcast, and peace to the war-torn.

Leader: You acted with both mercy and justice,
People: rescuing the Israelites from slavery in Egypt, providing them with manna when they were hungry.
Leader: And your people acted with both mercy and justice,
People: Like the prophets who cried out to care for widow, orphan, and foreigner, and those who provided food, shelter, and community.
Leader: You have shared your mercy and justice with us, not only as gifts to be received from you, but as gifts that we are to share with the world. We see this gift most clearly in the gift of your Son, Jesus Christ. Jesus showed us what a life of mercy and justice looked like:
People: In mercy, he gave food to the hungry. In justice, he broke social custom and shared tables with the powerful and the lowly at once. In mercy, he cared for the sick. In justice, he broke religious custom and healed on the Sabbath. In mercy, he had compassion for the poor. In justice, he spoke out against the Empire that held them in poverty. In mercy, he washed his disciples' feet. In justice, he died without protest to expose a corrupt system.
Leader: On the night he was handed over to the unjust system that killed him, he protested by sharing a meal with his friends. There, he took bread, gave thanks for God's mercy in providing it, shared God's mercy by giving it to his friends, then called them to remember the injustice of his broken body every time they ate bread. After they ate, he took the cup, gave thanks for God's mercy in providing it, shared God's mercy by giving it to his friends, then called them to remember the injustice of his spilled blood every time they drank wine.
People: But that wasn't all. God's mercy and justice burst forth when Jesus died, and his resurrection gave hope to all those who hunger for mercy and thirst for justice. God will always equip those who seek to share mercy and justice. Even death cannot stop God's incredible grace.
Leader: So, we ask God's Holy Spirit to be poured out on this meal, on these gifts of mercy: bread and juice, that we may remember Jesus' ministry of mercy and justice, that these gifts of mercy may become for us the body and blood of Christ, so that we may show mercy and do justice, not just for ourselves, but for the transformation of the world. We pray this in the name of the one who taught us to pray by praying:

THE LORD'S PRAYER * #895 UMH
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

SHARING OF THE BREAD AND CUP

The bread we share is gluten-free that all may partake of the one loaf.*

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOOD/FELLOWSHIP SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

The times we gather for food at Calvary are very important for making CONNECTIONS and continuing the fellowship after the worship service. We talk, laugh, share, and nourish one another in body and spirit. To sustain these connections, we are asking for volunteers and/or sponsors for our food/fellowship times.

Teams are being created to help with prep, service, and clean-up. A team will be responsible for the food/fellowship time one Sunday each month. If you are interested in serving on one of these teams, please speak to Mike Schnitgen, Food Ministry Coordinator.

Calvary's annual budget includes line items for income and expenses for weekly fellowship. A DONATIONS BOX will be provided each week and any donation amount will be appreciated. There are also opportunities for sponsorship—$50 for after service and $100 for the monthly luncheon. Please see Mike Schnitgen to sponsor a Sunday. The more we balance food income against food expenses, the more we will support a balanced budget for Calvary.

The screening is hosted by Community House Church in partnership with Hugh Lane Wellness Foundation.

JAMES W. IMAN – A PIANO CONCERT

Friday, February 7 | 7:00 PM | Sanctuary | Free Admission – A Free-Will Offering will be taken

Calvary is excited to present a piano concert featuring the extraordinary talents of James W. Iman, performing works that explore the impressionistic genius of Claude Debussy and beyond.

This evening's program will showcase pieces from James' highly anticipated second album, including Debussy's Images I and Images II, as well as Jenny Beck's evocative composition Stand Still Here.

Debussy's Images marks the beginning of his mature period, as he increasingly weaves intricate, vivid musical imagery into his compositions. The pieces are a rich tapestry of color and texture, exemplifying his distinct voice. Beck's Stand Still Here, inspired by Virginia Woolf's To the Lighthouse, adds a contemporary touch to the evening, reflecting on the complexities of time, memory, and perception.

So sit back, relax, and let the music take you on a journey. Each note tells a story, and every chord paints a picture—inviting you to lose yourself in a world of sound. Enjoy the concert, and let the music speak.
