Dear Parent or Carer

As you are no doubt aware, it is important that students achieve the very best possible results in all their subjects.

In an effort to further support your child to achieve their potential, there will be a weekly study support session run each Thursday from 3pm to 4pm beginning on 26th September.

During this weekly session, students will be supported on an individual basis to complete work that has been purposefully selected by their class teachers to ensure they have the best possible chance of being successful in the summer examinations, which begin in just five school months.

Furthermore, there are additional mock examination periods on 14th October and 4th December for which this will be extremely helpful.

With your help in ensuring your child attends, the weekly sessions can help make a big difference to how successful they are this year.

Thank you in anticipation of your continued support.

Yours sincerely
