Diversity

We are committed to equality of opportunity for everyone. To assess whether our Diversity policy is effective we need to monitor it and, to do this, we need to know the information requested below. We can then compare the success rates of different groups at both the shortlisting and appointment stages to ensure that unfair discrimination is not taking place. This will also enable us to comply with our obligations under current legislation.

Disability

The Equality Act 2010 made it unlawful for employers to discriminate against their employees who are disabled, and places a duty on the employer to make reasonable adjustments to enable the employee to undertake the work. The definition of disability in the Act is "a physical or mental impairment that has a 'substantial' and 'long-term' negative effect on your ability to do normal daily activities". If you do consider yourself to be disabled under the definition in the Act, please indicate this, even if you do not currently need any adjustments to undertake your job.

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act allows for a person who has been convicted of a criminal offence involving a sentence of not more than $2\frac{1}{2}$ years imprisonment and who has since lived trouble free for a specified period of time (related to the severity of the offence) to be treated as if the offence, conviction or sentence had never occurred. This is known as a spent conviction.

The job for which you are applying is one of those to which the provisions of the above Act in relation to spent convictions do not apply. You must, therefore, disclose whether you have any previous convictions, whether or not they are spent.

Should you identify that you have a criminal conviction, this will be discussed in confidence at interview. However you should note that only convictions that are relevant to the job in question will be taken into account.

If 'Yes' please give further information:

If you do not disclose any conviction you have it could lead to your application being rejected or, if you are appointed, may lead later to your dismissal. If, between the completion of this application form and taking up a job within Padgate Academy you are convicted of a criminal offence you must inform Padgate Academy of this.

People who have convictions will be treated fairly and given every opportunity to establish their suitability for the job. All applicants will be considered on merit and ability.

Any information that you give will be kept in strict confidence and will be used only in respect of your application for the job.

Disclosure & Barring

Successful applicants will be asked to apply for a DBS Disclosure from the Disclosure & Barring Service.
