Hey Y'all,

Happy new year to everyone! Hopefully you all had a great holiday season full of family and happiness. I am very excited to work with all of you this season. I have been showing horses since I was six years old and have shown all breeds of horses all over the country in several different disciplines. However, in all my travels I have never felt as welcome anywhere else as I did the first time I showed at Midway Saddle Club. Midway is an amazing organization with a very special place in my heart. I believe we can make Midway an even better organization making it just as special to the rest of you. But, to do that we need your help! Tell all of your horse friends about us. Ask your friends and family to come watch you show. It's a great accomplishment to be able to exhibit your horses you should be proud of yourselves.

My favorite thing to see at a show is all your smiling faces going around the ring. After all that's what showing is all about...Having Fun! Sometimes things don't work out as planned in the ring. I ask you not to let this frustrate you, but to look at it as a learning experience to make the next time even better!

You are a member of the Midway Saddle Club and your voice matters. Please come to our general membership meetings so your voice may be heard. Also, if you can please volunteer to help at our shows it would be greatly appreciated. It takes several people to put on a show. I can't wait to see all your smiling faces and again. I look forward to working with you all this season.

We'll soon be called into our stalls
all snug and warm and dry.
The people celebrate again,
although I wonder why.
The daylight has been lengthening
for a week or more.
But that's alright,
their hearts were light
when closed the stable door.
"Happy New Year!" they will shout,
their kitchen window bright.
It will continue glowing
late in to the night.
They'll be groggy in the morning,
but they gave us lots of hay,
and we'll be munching happily
well into New Year's Day.
