Spiritual Inquiry

Laura offers practical guidance, and a comforting presence to individuals and families navigating the final transition of end-of-life.

Laura brings a unique blend of expertise to personalized care. Coaching clients through fears and anxieties, and customizing care to meet diverse needs, Laura understands the importance of individualized support and that each death is as unique as the life lived.

Empowering clients to make informed decisions that align with their wishes and values is the focus. Through collaboration with a diverse network of experts and access to a wealth of resources, Laura ensures that every client receives tailored care and holistic support.

Laura is committed to non-judgmental care, where autonomy is prioritized throughout the entire process – from diagnosis to departure. Clients are met with empathy, respect, and understanding so that they can navigate their life and legacy with dignity and grace.

Whether preparing individual arrangements or providing emotional and practical support, Laura is dedicated to walking alongside clients through their end-of-life experiences, offering comfort, companionship, and a guiding light through the shadows.
