PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

SUSAN HUTCHINSON, PRESIDENT

Greetings Members!

We are so excited to finally have our first social of the year. Deb Baker, our Ways and Means Chair is on it! We have great prizes like logo'd beach chairs, wine glasses, and more!

Play Steal your Heart, dance to the sounds of Fessa' John Hook, and mix and mingle with members. So make plans to attend our re-up/first social of the year on February 19th at the Upper Deck 6-9pm. The theme is "Shaggin' with your Sweetie"!

Renew your membership online before the social and there will be no cover charge Sunday at <https://basslakeshagclub.com/membership-1>. Our annual club member dues remain the same at $25 per person. Your $25 includes 1 free entry to a regular monthly social, as well as no charge to attend our annual Christmas Party. You can print an application and from our website and bring your completed form and cash or check with you, These dues are so important to our smaller club.

I attended my first ACSC meeting as president at Mid-Winter on January 14th.

Ronnie Gregory, who was a judge in our Shaggin' with the Stars last year, Past President of Burlington Shag Club and Hall of Fame recipient was re-elected to the ACSC Board. We are so grateful to those who serve!

Don't forget to support Eno Beach Shag Club and honor Roy Childress on Sunday, February 26th at Captain John's Dockside (home of CASA) starting at 5:00pm This is a mixed doubles contest. We hope everyone will be able to attend in support of EBSC, Roy, and Roy's wife Peggy. You can find more details on their Facebook page.

Spring Safari is not far away. SOS cards sales are one way we support SOS so be sure to purchase yours from Deb Baker at a reduced cost of $30 ($35 at the venues). Cash or Check only. If you are going to be at SOS, we hope you will be with us in the Parade. Please reach out to myself or Deb for ways to support and participate. We have so much fun every year! SOS is April 13-23 and the parade is Saturday, April 22.

DJ of the Month

This month's DJ is "Fessa" John Hook who you probably know from his radio show "Dancing on the Edge" heard every weekday on Junkin Oldies Internet radio station! You may remember he featured BassLake Shag Club a couple of years ago on his radio show and invited then President Deb Baker and Vice-President Susan Hutchinson to join him. Our members were able to submit our favorite Beach music songs which he played during the show!

John Hook is a dedicated fan of Beach and Shag music. His first foray into Beach Music radio programming was with WIST in Charlotte in 1976. He is a member of the DJ Hall of Fame, the Beach Music Radio DJ Hall of Fame, publisher and editor of a variety of magazines dedicated to Beach culture including "It Will Stand", "Carolina Class" and "Dancing on the Edge". His body of work now boasts 10 books on Beach and Shag history beginning with "Shaggin' in the Carolinas" in 2006. On the radio track he was named Billboard magazine's Program Director of the Year for his unique blend of Beach Music and Adult Contemporary music in 1984.

As an independent broadcaster he has syndicated 8 different shows over a hundred radio stations, along with the Endless summer Network over the Internet in the 2000's, and a satellite Beach music program which covered 2/3 of Europe. He currently syndicated the Beach Music Top 40 Countdown, the Roadhouse Blues, Boogie and Fish Fry, the Beach Music Class Reunion and the Red Hot Rockabilly Show.

February is for lovers

We'd like to share Pete and Karen Ellis' love story with you:

"When Pete and I first met in 2016, we had both recently lost our spouses.

A mutual friend of ours, Debi Hallman, introduced us. We knew her through a Grief share group with our Church. Debi was also a member of Bass Lake. Coincidentally, Debi and I signed up for dance lessons with Sara and Jim Adcox. Pete was also taking dance lessons.

I then started to go to the Bass Lake socials with Debi and some other girls who were in Grief Share. We sat at the singles table and Pete was always there, too. Slowly, we started to pair up and after several months of seeing each other at dance lessons and socials, our friendship grew stronger.

We dated about a year, became engaged in 2018 and married in May 2019. Bass Lake played a big part in this. We still enjoy going to the socials and have slowly gotten to be a little better dancers."

Happy Anniversary to:
