PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Deb Baker, President

Greeting BASSLake!

Hope this finds you all healthy and happy to be getting out in the world again! Yes, we still are seeing COVID raise its ugly head but hopefully we have developed immunity to this crazy virus and it's not affecting us as bad as it did.

Another SOS is in the books and it was great. The crowds were good but you could tell that there were still some folks missing. The weather was almost perfect and it was a good time to breathe in the salt air and enjoy the sunshine. The SOS parade was well attended and thanks to a great group of volunteers from our club as well as some good friends of our club, we were able to bring our float to life. Our DJ David Pendergraft rocked us down Ocean Blvd with his great tunes and everyone knew that BASSLake was in the house! Our float came in 3rd for Most Original theme which was, "The Shag Dogs are out so Let the Good Times Roll"! This was a take-off of two movies, 101 Dalmatians and Cruella! We were well received by the big crowds along the way with our dogs, puppies and our popular "Covid Dog" aka Charlie Goodwin! Thanks to everyone who showed up, pitched in and worked hard to help!

Our Board met this week and we talked about fundraisers that we need to have this year. We always like to give back to the community as well as have the funds to provide our members with socials and special events. As we all know, the cost of living is going up and up with inflation being at an all-time high. I know that we are all looking at ways to save money and continue to enjoy life. We want to continue to provide you as members with the best socials and special events that we have all grown to love and expect... but there are expenses that dues don't cover. We hope to have a committee formed of club members and board members to come up with some new ideas on fundraising. I have contacted some of you already who I am pleased to say are ready and willing but I hope that you will volunteer if you have ideas and will be willing to serve on this committee. We will probably meet via Zoom due to the convenience. Please send me a quick email or text if you would be willing to help out!

Our club celebrated its 15th birthday in February of this year. There were some shag clubs that did not survive the pandemic. Your board worked hard to come up with ways to keep in touch during those years when we were unable to meet in person. I am so thankful that BASSLake survived and is doing well but we must continue to work to keep it going.

Our next social will be Sunday, May 22nd and we are excited to have DJ Danny Navey with us playing your favorite tunes. If you haven't heard Danny, he is from Atlantic Beach and one of the owners of Memories night club there. He and his wife Linda are great people and I know you will enjoy hearing him. Mark your calendars and plan to join us. We will also be teaching a couple's dance which can be danced single as well. Check out our FB page and come at 5:30 to learn the River Waltz.

Invite a guest to our social, teach someone to dance and let's keep the Shag alive!

Deb
