WHAT'S IN A NAME?

“What’s in a Name” submissions:

SAN BLAS

Kayli Magnusson

Kennel Name: San Blas Kennels

Breed: Staffordshire Bull Terriers

Meaning: Kayli was born on an island off the coast of Panama called the San Blas Islands.

Fun Fact: Kayli’s kennel name is a tribute to where she is from. Kayli was adopted when she was 8mo old and when she was 10 she had the opportunity to visit the island and meet her birth parents. She also was able to learn more about her culture.

Belmont

Yves Belmont

Kennel Name: Belmont

Breed: Cane Corsos and Neapolitan Mastiffs

Meaning: Yves Belmont’s last name

Fun Fact: Yves has loved both breeds and fell in love with them in 1995 and never looked back.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

If you would like to participate in the
“What’s In a Name”

kennel name information submission, email Stephanie M. Hawkins at eisahounds@gmail.com

with answers to the following questions:

1. What is your breed?
2. What is your kennel name (prefix for your dogs’ registered name)
3. How do you pronounce it?
4. What made you choose that name?

Other fun facts are welcomed!

UPCOMING

We are launching a CKC Marketplace soon - we are working out the details but stay tuned for an opportunity to contribute your gently used dog related items for sale or trade to benefit the club.

We are happy to announce that Conyers Kennel Club is a proud member of the Georgia Canine Coalition.

Please visit their website at georgiacaninecoalition.org to see what they are all about and how we are now a part of the great things they are doing!
