SWIMMERS OF THE WEEK

Women's Swimming– Veronika Latawiec (USJ)

WEST HARTFORD, CT– Veronika Latawiec, Junior at USJ, has been voted as the Swimmer of the Week for the second week of the season.

Veronika won 4 out of 4 events, the 200 Medley Relay (breaststroke leg), the 1000 free, the 50 backstroke qualifying for New England's with a 30.96. She also won the 100 IM qualifying with a time of 1:10.02.

Prior to her swimming career at USJ, Latawiec swam for Newington High School in Newington, CT. She is majoring in Biochemistry.

Veronika and the USJ Blue Jays return to the pool on October 27th at home for the Blue Jays Pentathlon.

Men's Swimming– Richie Selznick (Brandeis)

WALTHAM, MA- Richie Selznick, Freshman at Brandeis has been voted as the NEISDA Swimmer of the Week for the second week of the season.

In a long back to back weekend at Hartwick, then Vassar, Richie won the 1000 twice with a 10:22 on Friday and a 10:12 on Saturday. He also won the 500 in both meets; 5:00.8 on Friday and 4:56.03 on Saturday. In some off events, he was 4th in the 100 fly with a 56.7 on Friday and split a 23.3 in the free relay. On Saturday, he swam a 2:07.2 in the IM. His attitude was great all weekend as he endured the hard double on back to back days.

Prior to his swimming career at Brandeis, Selznick swam for Palo Verde High School in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Richie and the Brandeis Judges return to the pool on November 3rd at WPI.

DIVERS OF THE WEEK

Women's Diving– Genna Karp (Brandeis)

WALTHAM, MA– Genna Karp, Senior at Brandeis, has been voted as the Diver of the Week for the second week of the season.

Genna has battled foot injuries all year and literally came out of her boot that she's been in for about a year to win the 1m and 3m events at Vassar. It was her first time on the boards all year!

Prior to her diving career at Brandeis, Karp dove for Golda Och Academy in her hometown of Springfield, NJ.

Genna Karp and the Brandeis Judges return to the pool on November 3rd at WPI.

Men's Diving– Sam Zucker (Brandeis)

WALTHAM, MA- Sam Zucker, Senior at Brandeis, has been voted as the NEISDA Diver of the Week for the second time this season.

Sam helped lead the men to an undefeated weekend picking up crucial firsts on 1m and 3m in a tight meet with Hartwick. His 184.85 on 3m was his highest score of the season so far. At Vassar, he picked up two more victories setting another season best with a 190.55 on 3m. His 185.25 was nearly 15 points better than his Friday performance.

Prior to his diving career at Brandeis, Zucker attended Anderson High School in his hometown of Omaha, Neb.

Sam Zucker and the Brandeis Judges return to the pool on November 3rd at WPI.
