SWIMMERS OF THE WEEK

Elaine Dudley (Norwich)

Northfield, VT– Elaine Dudley, Sophomore at Norwich, has been voted as the Swimmer of the Week.

At GNAC Championships this past weekend at Simmons, Dudley won the 100 IM and 200 IM. She broke the 100IM and set a pool record at Simmons, a school record for Norwich, and a GNAC record.

Prior to swimming at Norwich, Dudley swam for Massabesic High School in North Waterboro, ME. She is currently majoring in Criminal Justice at Norwich.

Dudley and the Norwich Cadets return to the pool on Saturday December 10th at Bentley.

Men’s Swimming– Nick Rainville (Regis)

Weston, MA, Nick Rainville, Senior at Regis (MA), has been voted as the NEISDA Swimmer of the Week.

In all, Rainville won all four of his individual events for the weekend: 100 free, 50, 100 and 200 fly. He set GNAC records in the 100 free, 100 fly, and 50 fly. Rainville set a school record in the 100 free with a time of 46.72. He also led off the winning 200 freestyle relay with a 21:27, which was also a GNAC record.

Rainville and the Regis Pride return to the pool on January 13th at Simmons with Colby Sawyer.
