Celebrating 100 Years
CSCAA 2019 Fall All–America Teams

January 29, 2020

Colorado Springs, CO - The College Swimming and Diving Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) has selected a record 762 programs from 480 institutions to the Scholar All-America Team for the Fall 2019 semester. Teams were selected on the basis of their Fall 2019 grade point averages and represent 17,685 student-athletes. The Swarthmore College Men led with a GPA of 3.73 while Saint Catherine University (MN) topped all women's programs with a 3.77.

"The CSCAA Scholar All-America list is a great marker for academic success and provides a benchmark for teams to strive for," explained South Carolina Head Coach and Member, CSCAA Board of Directors. To earn the honor, teams were required to post a GPA of 3.0 or higher for the Fall Semester and maintain a roster of 12 or more student-athletes.

Founded in 1922, the College Swimming and Diving Coaches Association of America (CSCAA), is the nation's first organization of college coaches. The mission of the CSCAA is to advance the sport of swimming and diving with coaches at the epicenter of leadership, advocacy, and professional development.

Congratulations to the following schools and head coaches in the New England Intercollegiate Swimming and Diving Association that have been honored as a CSCAA Scholar All-America Team for the Fall of 2019:
