Weston, MA - The New England Intercollegiate Swimming and Diving Association (NEISDA) is pleased to announce it's new board for the 2019-20 academic year. The board was voted upon by the head coaches of the association at the annual meeting held on April 3 at Simmons University. As the current President, Mindy Williams of Simmons University, concluded her term, Vice-President Jared Felker of St Joseph's College of Maine becomes the new President of NEISDA. Chris Woolridge of Keene State was voted as the new Vice-President. Brenda Straker and Todd Watkins of the University of St. Joseph's CT were respectively voted as the Secretary and as the Diving Executive. James Sweeney of Regis College rounds out the board returning as the Treasury. Terms are served for two years.

NEISDA is also pleased to announce that the Albertus Magnus Women's Swimming and Diving team is joining NEISDA for the 2019-20 season. This brings the total number of women's participating teams to 22 Division 3 schools in New England.
