

Speaker's Profile

Jermaine Johnson is a Minister, Motivational Speaker and Musician, who hails from Port Antonio, Jamaica.

He is a celebrated speaker, gracing the audiences of countless corporate, government and academic institutions, locally and internationally. And having spent over a decade in the classroom, he brings much methodology to his presentations.

He is an award-winning Toastmaster, nationally and regionally, and operates with the mantra, "Engage. Empower. Enrich."

He has served his country in many capacities over the years, to include President of the National Youth Council of Jamaica, Ambassador for the National Youth Service, Jamaica's representative to the Commonwealth Youth Parliament in Australia, the composer of the Governor-General's "I Believe" Initiative theme song, and more. He also currently serves as an IBI Ambassador for the Governor-General's Programme for Excellence.

He has worn many hats throughout his life, including Radio Host, Music Conductor and Youth Development Activist. But his passion lies in ministering to, inspiring and motivating people.

A proud graduate of the Titchfield High School and the Northern Caribbean University (Honour Student & Class Valedictorian), Johnson currently serves as the Senior Pastor of the Moneague District of Seventh-day Adventist Churches in St. Ann and CEO of Johnson Motivates.

He is happily married to Georgia (nee Wright), his partner in ministry and motivation.

Johnson Motivates
Engage. Empower. Enrich.