Chief Tunde Adetunji is a visionary, an idealist, a realist, and a prince, born to a royal family in Nigeria. Chief Adetunji is the Africa Cultural Ambassador, CEO, and founder of the Africa Heritage Foundation, Africa World Museum & Center, and the Africa Heritage Diaspora T.V. Chief Adetunji is a true pan-Africanist and an expert on Africa Affairs. He is a renown presenter, a master communicator, and a motivational speaker. He is very articulate, talented, dedicated and creative. He has a proven ability of making things happen, helping people to realize their dreams and goals, getting them faster to where they need to be, and helping them to reach the Zenith of their callings. Chief Adetunji is also Atlanta's 100 Most Influential Multicultural Business Leaders of the year 2010 in the Atlanta Business Journal.
