Invitation

With the explosion in technology in various disciplines of clinical Neurosciences, It has become very difficult to choose cost-effective and relevant technologies for the benefit of our patients. Most innovations in the name of technological advances are vendor driven, making it more difficult to choose the right technology for a given task. In this unique conference, we will try and showcase the various advancements in Neurosciences and make the participants aware of the cost-effective options available for use in their set-up. The target audience is Neurosurgeons, Neurologists, Neuropathologists, Neuroradiologists, Emergency physicians and surgeons. We look forward to having you for a unique and very interesting academic feast in Goa.
