1. Please explain why you want a wolfdog (in detail):
2. How many people live in your household? Please list names of each person, their age, and relationship to you:
3. Do you have any children? If so, please list their ages:
4. Do you presently have any pets? Please list species or breed of each along with their age and gender:

5. Please list any animals that you have owned in the past, species/breed if applicable:

6. Do you live in a house/condo/townhome/apartment? Please list the type of dwelling it is, and if you own or rent:

7. Provide details about your property, including dwelling square footage, lot size, fence height, fence materials, etc. Be detailed. Explain what provisions are in place to prevent digging out, or escape over or through your fence. (Please send photos of your property, yard, fence, and all areas pup will be living)

8. (Question for high content applicants only): Do you presently have a containment in place for your future pup? If so, then please provide details: square footage, height, wire gauge, dig guard specifications, and structures inside to provide shelter and enrichment. Note- To be eligible for our high content pups containment must be 100% complete before pickup to our specs)

9. Do you live in a track home neighborhood or rural location?

10. Do you have any experience with wolfdogs or northern breeds? Please explain.

11. (Question for high content applicant) Please provide details about your experience with wolfdogs. Please describe past wolfdogs owned, their content, and length of time owned. Note- We require experience with wolfdogs of similar content (over 60%) to be eligible for one of our high content 95%+ pups. If you do not have experience, then you will be required to gain experience before we release our high content pup to you. You can gain sufficient experience through volunteering for a sanctuary, zoo, or other similar facility. Proof of such experience will be required prior to pickup. For previous animals you owned, provide photos and Embark DNA result to evidence content. If experience cannot be adequately proven with photos and DNA, then we cannot consider the stated experience as adequate. For those who don't have satisfactory experience but are willing to volunteer here or at another facility, we will require between 6 months to 1 year experience to be adequately trained. Please explain details of your experience and provide supporting docs.

12. What are your plans with your new puppy? Be specific about the life you envision with this puppy so we can ensure that our pup will be realistic for what you expect. Please note, we require buyers to take their puppy to training Classes which only use positive reinforcement methods only.

13. How many hours per day/ per week can you commit to spending with your pup for the duration of their life.

14. Provide details about the planned living arrangements for your new puppy. Where will the puppy be while you are at work? Is there someone who can take care of the puppy while you are not home? Will the puppy be living outdoors, indoors, or both?
15. Wolfdogs do not like to be alone. Would you be willing to get a companion for your puppy if you will be gone for work or long intervals on a daily basis? It doesn't have to be a wolfdog.
16. Where will the puppy sleep at night?
17. Socialization with other humans and dogs is important for the development of the puppy. How do you plan to do this and how often?
18. Your puppy should NEVER be around older dogs unsupervised, nor should they be turned loose together. Older dogs have the ability to cause great injury to a small puppy, either by mistake or intentional. If you have older dogs, you will be expected to keep them apart and away from the puppy at all times that you are not able to supervise and control the situation. Do you agree to this? Please explain how you will keep the puppy separate from the other dogs that you own.
19. Wolfdogs And puppies in general can be VERY destructive. They can damage expensive furniture, chew your walls, destroy grass, carpet, or anything else you leave in their reach. Cords, wallets, shoes, and clothes are not exempt. They will have accidents and will cry or howl. Will you have patience with this normal behavior, and how will you handle this?

20. Do you plan to get any new pets in the next 12 months or in the future? Please explain:

21. Please explain activity level of the household:

- A. Do you want a pet that will lounge indoors with you most of the time with occasional short walks?
- B. Do you seek a semi active dog, one that is low energy and easy to maintain but able to go on longer walks and jogs or will enjoy going out for activities a few days per week?
- C. Are you a high energy household, one that is constantly active doing outdoor activities, training activities, and do you seek a companion that has high energy and requires a lot of exercise and mental stimulation? Please note this level of energy will be most destructive and high maintenance.

22. Have you ever surrendered an animal to a shelter, back to the breeder, or rehomed one of your animals? Please explain:

23. Do you plan to breed? Please note our animals are sold with NO BREEDING RIGHTS. Exceptions to this will only be made in very rare cases such that the applicant has a proven track record of ethical breeding practices, a proven history with raising and handling this breed, and follows their local ordinance with respect to maintaining breeder or kennel permits in their city or county if applicable.

24. Do you have any major life changes you anticipate in the future such as planning to move, go to college, or change careers, or have children? Will you be making any changes to your lifestyle or do you consider yourself to be established?

25. If you don't already have kids, do you plan to have them at any point in the future?

26. What type of diet/dog food will you be feeding your puppy? Please note, wolfdogs do not tolerate cheap poor quality dog foods. There are certain high quality brands that we recommend that cost between $70- $100 per bag. Also, wolfdogs should have raw incorporated to their diet for optimal health. Will you will willing to feed the recommended diet for optimal health?

27. We reserve the right to do site inspections if there is any indication of neglect, abuse, or compromised security of the puppy. Do you agree to these terms?

28. Wolfdogs do not do well in boarding kennels. Do you have a family member or friend who is willing to babysit your pup if you are going away for vacation or emergency?

29. Please list specific plans or desires you have for this puppy. Example: Companion? Service Animal? Protection? Emotional support or therapy? Please be detailed about your plans so we can determine which litter if any will suit these needs.

30. If the situation arises where you cannot keep your pup, it must never be transferred to a 3rd party or shelter. The puppy must come back to us, or we must prescreen and approve any family member that you want to have resume ownership of your pup. If there is someone you want your pup to go to, and we determine they are not qualified or a good fit, then we will resume ownership and will evaluate to determine if the pup can be rehomed or will stay with us. Do you agree to these terms?

31. We expect our buyers to notify us if anything critical happens to one of our pups, such as illness, escape, accidents, surgery, or death. Do you agree to keep us informed when it comes to the well being of one of our pups?

32. Please specify your desired gender, color, coat type, and wolf content you desire.
Note- we cannot guarantee coat color and will not allow transfer of deposit to a future litter for coat color.

33. Please provide second choice of color, gender, coat, etc:

34. How do you plan to pick up your puppy? If you need transport, it must go through one of our qualified and approved USDA transporters. Please note that transport or travel expenses to getting your puppy are NOT included in the sales price, and you will be responsible for these other fees. Please confirm how you plan to pick your puppy up:

35. Please provide 3 references. Provide their full name and phone numbers:

36. Have you ever had a past or present dog that contracted parvo? If so please provide the dates:

37. Please provide the name, address, and phone number of your veterinarian:

38. Is there any other information you would like us to know about you, your lifestyle, plans, etc?

39. Our puppy prices start at $2,000 and go up to $5,000 for 2026 litters. Our non refundable deposit is $400.

Our requirements are strict because we only want our puppies placed in the best possible environments to ensure their success, and your success too! Our puppy buyers become a part of our family. We are here for support and advice to help you any time you need it, and encourage ongoing communication. By signing this application you are certifying the information you provided to us is true and correct, and you are agreeing to our terms and policies. Based on the information provided in this application (or through phone or photos) we will determine if you are a good match for one of our upcoming litters, and will only put you on a litter that we are confident is a good fit for you and your lifestyle.

These are the steps of our process:

1. Puppy application to be completed and signed.
2. Phone Interview
3. Photos to be received and reviewed for property, fencing, and past wolf dogs/Northern breeds (if applicable). Any modifications required for containment must be done prior to picking up your puppy.
4. Contract to be sent to buyer for e-signing
5. Deposit for $400 (or $500 for high content) must be received before you are officially added to the wait list. We accept Zelle, Pay Pal, Venmo.

We cannot make any guarantees with timing of a litter, gender, or color. Nature can't always be predicted with 100% accuracy.
