1. Please explain why you want a wolfdog (in detail):
2. How many people live in your household? Please list names of each person, their age, and relationship to you:
3. Do you have any children? If so, please list their ages:
4. Do you presently have any pets? Please list species or breed of each along with their age and gender:

5. Please list any animals that you have owned in the past, species/breed if applicable:

6. Do you live in a house/condo/townhome/apartment? Please list the type of dwelling it is, and if you own or rent:

7. Provide details about your property, including dwelling square footage, lot size, fence height, fence materials, etc. Be detailed. Explain what provisions are in place to prevent digging out, or escape over or through your fence.

8. Do you live in a track home neighborhood or rural location?

9. Do you have any experience with wolfdogs or northern breeds? Please explain.

10. What are your plans with your new puppy? Please note we require buyers to take their puppy to training Classes which only use positive reinforcement.

11. Provide details about the planned living arrangements for your new puppy. Where will the puppy be while you are at work? Is there someone to take care of the puppy while you are not home? Will the puppy be living outdoors, indoors, or both?
12. Do you have a secure place for your puppy to be while unsupervised?
13. Wolfdogs do not like to be alone. Would you be willing to get a companion for your puppy if you will be gone for work or long intervals on a daily basis? It doesn't have to be a wolfdog.
14. Where will the puppy sleep at night?
15. Socialization with other humans and dogs is important for the development of the puppy. How do you plan to do this?
16. Your puppy should NEVER be around older dogs unsupervised, nor should they be turned loose together. Older dogs have the ability to cause great injury to a small puppy, either by mistake or intentional. If you have older dogs, you will be expected to keep them apart and away from the puppy at all times that you are not able to supervise and control the situation. Do you agree to this? Please explain how you will keep the puppy separate from the other dogs that you own.

17. Please describe the qualities you want in your pup:

18. Wolfdogs And puppies in general can be VERY destructive. They can damage expensive furniture, chew your walls, destroy grass, or anything else you leave in their reach. Cords, wallets, shoes, and clothes are not exempt. They will have accidents and will cry or howl. Will you have patience with this and how will you handle this?

19. Wolfdogs are escape artists. Upon review of your property and back yard, we may require adjustments to be made to prevent escape from digging and jumping.

20. Do you plan to get any new pets in the next 12 months or in the future? Please explain:

21. Please explain activity level of the household:

- A. Do you want a pet that will lounge indoors with you most of the time with occasional short walks?
- B. Do you seek a semi active dog, one that is low energy and easy to maintain but able to go on longer walks and jogs or will enjoy going out for activities a few days per week?

- C. Are you a high energy household, one that is constantly active doing outdoor activities, training activities, and do you seek a companion that has high energy and requires a lot of exercise and mental stimulation? Please note this level of energy will be most destructive and high maintenance.

22. Have you ever surrendered an animal to a shelter, back to the breeder, or rehomed one of your animals? Please explain:

23. Do you plan to breed? If so please do not continue this application. We only sell our animals for pet purposes with no breeding rights.

24. You are expected to keep your puppy up to date with all vaccinations required to protect them from deadly viruses and comply with your local jurisdiction and state laws for rabies. Do you agree to keep your puppy up to date on all inoculations?

25. Do you plan to move, go to college, or change careers in the future. Will you be making any changes to your lifestyle or do you consider yourself to be established?

26. If you don't already have kids, do you plan to have them in the future?

27. What type of diet/dog food will you be feeding your puppy? Please note, wolfdogs do not tolerate cheap poor quality dog foods. There are certain high quality brands that we recommend that cost between $70- $100 per bag. Also, wolfdogs should have raw incorporated to their diet for optimal health. Will you will willing to feed the recommended diet for optimal health?

28. Where will you be keeping the puppy while unsupervised for any length of time?

29. Please explain your grooming and husbandry protocol. Include and preventatives used for flea and tick prevention.

30. Do you plan to actively participate in weekly puppy training courses that only use positive reinforcement? We suggest owners to participate in training and regular socialization activities.

31. Our puppies must have access to water at all times, and to be fed on regular intervals at least 2 times per day as adults, and 3-4 times per day as young pups. We also require our puppy to live in a clean and healthy environment. Do you agree to this?
32. We reserve the right to do site inspections if there is any indication of neglect, abuse, or compromised security of the puppy. Do you agree to these terms?
33. Wolfdogs do not do well in boarding kennels. Do you have a family member or friend who is willing to babysit your pup if you are going away for vacation or emergency?
34. What activities do you enjoy in your spare time, and that you do on a weekly basis?
35. Please explain what you envision to be as the ideal pup/dog. What behavior, temperament, and personality traits do you seek? Please be detailed.
36. Please list specific plans or desires you have for this puppy. Example: Companion? Service Animal? Protection? Emotional support or therapy? Please be detailed about your plans so we can determine which litter if any will suit these needs.

37. Each puppy we breed is special to us. We request our buyers to be willing to provide us with periodical updates and photos of how your puppy is progressing. We like to stay in contact with our buyers for the life of the puppy. Are you willing to do this?

38. If the situation arises where you cannot keep your pup, it must never be transferred to a 3rd party or shelter. The puppy must come back to us, or we must prescreen and approve any family member that you want to have resume ownership of your pup. If there is someone you want your pup to go to, and we determine they are not qualified or a good fit, then we will resume ownership and will evaluate to determine if the pup can be rehomed or will stay with us. Do you agree to these terms?

39. We expect our buyers to notify us if anything critical happens to one of our pups, such as illness, escape, accidents, surgery, or death. Do you agree to keep us informed when it comes to the well being of one of our pups?

40. Please specify your desired gender, color, coat type, and wolf content you desire:

41. Please provide second choice of color, gender, coat, etc:

42. How do you plan to pick up your puppy? If you need transport, it must go through one of our qualified and approved USDA transporters. Please note that transport or travel expenses to getting your puppy are NOT included in the sales price, and you will be responsible for these other fees. Please confirm how you plan to pick your puppy up:

43. Please provide 3 references. Provide their full name and phone numbers:

44. Have you ever had a past or present dog that contracted parvo? If so please provide the dates:

45. Please provide the name, address, and phone number of your veterinarian:

46. Is there any other information you would like us to know about you, your lifestyle, plans, etc?

47. Our puppy prices start at $2,000 and go up to $3,000 for 2025 litters. Our non refundable deposit is $400.

Our requirements are strict because we only want our puppies placed in the best possible environments to ensure their success, and your success too! Our puppy buyers become a part of our family. We are here for support and advice to help you any time you need it, and encourage ongoing communication.
