MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoehoe, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities.

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by, communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent, and treasure.

January 18, 2026 * Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

As humans, we tend to see the world in terms of our immediate surroundings and situation. When God enters our hearts, however, we have access to a wider perspective. God calls us to look beyond our limited vantage point to appreciate His love for all. The readings for this Sunday highlight this challenge which is an enduring feature of our relationship with Christ.

In our passage from Isaiah, the prophet describes his role as God’s herald as he announces that the Jews, will be restored to their home after the Babylonian Exile. When this happens, the prophet and the people will be gloriously vindicated. Yet, this justification is not enough for God. The return of the Jewish people to Palestine and their purification are only a part of the plan. The Chosen People will become a light to the world, drawing all nations to God, so that God’s salvation will cover the globe. Isaiah is teaching the exiles to see beyond the boundaries of their community, its flaws, and its plight in exile. The prophet is inviting them to become part of God’s greater plan. It is important for us to remember this lesson too. God’s gifts are always given for us to share with others, even those beyond our family, neighborhood and parish.

The second reading is taken from the opening of Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians. The Apostle is addressing a very diverse community with many divisions. The Apostle reminds them of their connection to the larger community of believers. Paul does this by pointing out that the Corinthian community shares in both sanctification and the call to holiness imposed upon the whole of Christ’s Church on earth. The Corinthian community was made up of the rich and poor, Greeks and Jews, with strong male and female leaders. The apostle’s emphasis on their link to the larger Church is meant to foster a sense of solidarity in their struggles through stressing what they share, in common, with all of Christ’s followers. Sometimes it is easy to be so blinded by the trial of our individual lives that we lose sight of the struggles around us. Focusing on our common humanity and our relationship to God offers us the chance to see beyond our noses to gain a more accurate appreciation of the truth.

In the Gospel, John the Baptist exemplifies this widened perception. John gives his testimony concerning Jesus. He is clear about his own identity as the forerunner and is equally emphatic in his assertion of Jesus’ identity as the Son of God. The prophet shares his vision of the Spirit coming down onto Jesus at His baptism and proclaims, “Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world.” Within the same passage, John the Baptist describes his own ministry to the Jewish nation but recognizes that Jesus has come to save the world. In this passage the effect of God’s presence on our understanding of life is clear; God helps us access a vantage point beyond our limited capacity.

We must embrace God’s Grace to expand our vision and embrace God’s will to make it operative in our lives. May we exhibit valor in expanding our vantage point to include God’s plan which supersedes our own ambitions.

Deacon Jerome Bettencourt

Baptism Enrichment 2026

January 10, 2026, Saturday, after the anticipated Mass of the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, those who have been Baptized from years 2018 to 2025 with their parents and Godparents were invited to a Sacrament of Baptism Enrichment gathering. We are very grateful for the 5 families who responded. Deacon Jerome encouraged the families to continue to make their children grow in the faith that has been handed to them on the day of their Baptism. This gathering has been organized by Ingrid Moreau, Parish Stewardship committee coordinator. The gathering ended with a joyful sharing a of dinner fellowship. Next year we will start calling back those who have been Baptized from 2022.
