MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoa, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities.

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by, communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent, and treasure.

SUNDAY CONNECTION

John 12:20-33

Jesus teaches his disciples about the way in which he will be glorified by God, and a voice from heaven is heard to affirm this teaching.

In today’s Gospel, we also hear Jesus speak about the cosmic framework against which we are to understand his passion, death, and Resurrection. Through his death and Resurrection, Jesus conquered Satan, the ruler of this world. In this way the world is judged, but the judgment is not condemnation. Instead, through Jesus’ dying and rising, salvation is brought to the world.

Raising Lazurus from the dead marks the turning point in Jesus’ conflict with the Jewish authorities. Sanhedrin met after this event and made plans to kill Jesus. Jesus is anointed at Bethany and enters Jerusalem in triumph. Following his triumphant entry into Jerusalem, Jesus predicted his suffering, death, and Resurrection and prepared his disciples to believe in the salvation that his death would accomplish. Using the metaphor of the grain of wheat, Jesus presented the idea that his dying would be beneficial. He also taught that those who would be his disciples must follow his example of sacrifice. This theme will be repeated in John’s account of the Last Supper, when Jesus washed the feet of his disciples as an example of how they must serve one another.

The Gospel of John does not record Jesus’ anguished prayer in the garden of Gethsemane before his arrest. Although comparable words are found in today’s reading, Jesus gives a confident response to the question he raises when asking God to save him from his impending death. After announcing his conviction that it is for this purpose that he came, a voice from heaven speaks, as if in answer to Jesus’ prayer. This voice, like the one heard at Jesus’ baptism and at Jesus’ Transfiguration—events reported in the Synoptic Gospels but not in John’s Gospel—affirms that God welcomes the sacrifice that Jesus will make on behalf of others. In John’s Gospel, Jesus teaches that this voice was sent for the sake of those who would believe in him.

March
Fifth Sunday in Lent

Like St. Paul in the second reading, the good steward can say, “I do all that I do for the sake of the omy Gospel in the hope of sharing in its blessings.”

POPE FRANCIS MARCH INTENTION

For the new martyrs
We pray that those who risk their lives for the Gospel in various parts of the world inflame the Church with their courage and missionary enthusiasm.

Covenant with Noah Chapter 9 - Verses 1-9

God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them: Be fertile and multiply and fill the earth.

Fear and dread of you shall come upon all the animals of the earth and all the birds of the air, upon all the creatures that move about on the ground and all the fishes of the sea; into your power they are delivered.
Any living creature that moves about shall be yours to eat; I give them all to you as I did the green plants. Only meat with its lifeblood still in it you shall not eat.

Indeed you’re your own lifeblood I will demand an accounting: from every animal I will demand it, and from a human being, each one for the blood of another, I will demand an accounting for human life.
Anyone who sheds the blood of a human being, by a human being shall that one’s blood be shed; For the image of God have human beings been made.

Be fertile, then, and multiply abound on earth and subdue it.

God said to Noah and to his sons with him:
See I am now establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you.

The Call to Stewardship

Jan Malinowski

The Call to Stewardship

“When I was a stranger, you welcomed me”(Matt 25:35). When we welcome strangers and newcomers into our midst, we are welcoming Christ Himself. One of the 4 Pillars of Stewardship is Hospitality; therefore, the members of the Greeters and Commentators Ministries play a very important role in our parish community, helping to make all who enter feel they belong and are appreciated. Greeters meet parishioners and visitors at the door, welcoming us and seeing to our comfort by helping us find seats if needed. They select and direct the gift bearers at the Offertory, and direct the congregation at Holy Communion time. In addition, they share leis and greetings of aloha with visitors and anniversary and birthday celebrants on our behalf. At the end of Mass, they pass out bulletins to help keep us informed about parish activities and concerns. They also clean up after us, making sure everything is neat and orderly for those who will come later. Commentators explain the key themes of the day’s Mass and invite us to prepare ourselves mentally and spiritually for its celebration before the priest enters. At the end of Mass, they recognize the visitors and various celebrants, so they can be greeted with leis and songs of aloha. Many Commentators are also Greeters. These ministries provide so many services that help everyone feel at home and spread the Spirit of aloha among us.

We wish to recognize and gratefully thank the members of our Greeters and Commentators Ministries. Greeters include: Sharen Chaves, Sally Ganiron, Teresita Hernandez, Ross Moodie, Ilyn Narciso, Philton Velasco. Greeters’ Aides include: Caselyn Acosta, Angelica Arabiano, Donna Baquial, Leah Baquial, Rachel Baquial Carolyn Gribi, Lynsey Julian, Lovely Refit, Avelina Sorcy, Commentators include: Christian Acosta, Leah Baquial, Sharen Chaves, Adrian Julian, Ilyn Narciso,

If you are interested in helping to make Sacred heart parish a warm and welcoming place by joining one or both of these beautiful ministries, please contact Ilyn Narciso at 808-987-9758.

CHRISM MASS
Joseph Church, Hilo Hawaii
March 21, 2024
5:30 PM

The Chrism mass takes place once a year during Lent. This is when all the parishes receive their holy oils used when sacraments are being administered. It is also when all the priests reaffirm their priestly vows with Bishop Larry Silva.

As this is Bishop Larry’s last year before retiring, Fr. John asks, that we as a parish, attend the Chrism Mass, bidding Bishop Larry well wishes as he journeys on to a new horizon in his retirement and commend him for the good works he’s done for our diocese.

GOOD FRIDAY
3 DEEP FRIED HOKI FISH
Rice, Potato/Mac Salad
Wakame Salad
$15.00

If you haven’t purchased your fish fry ticket yet, they are available at every mass, look for Sharen, Ilyn or Sally and also at the church office.

We are in need of ingredients for the wakame salad and rice. It would be very helpful also to receive a supply of quart and gallon sized zip lock bags. These bags helps us to bag leftover foods, not only for a fundraiser, but also for other activities that food is being served. Mahalo.

If you feel inclined, we could use help in the kitchen with frying, assembling and serving food.

Our Lenten Fry enables you to be able to have dinner after a day of fasting and prayer. You are free from making dinner for the night.
