MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoa, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities.

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by, communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent, and treasure.

SUNDAY CONNECTION

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Mark 14:1–15:47 (shorter form: Mark 15:1–39)

Jesus is sentenced to death and crucified. The centurion who witnessed his death declared, “This man was the Son of God.”

This Sunday is the first day of Holy Week. Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday are called the Triduum—three days that are the highlight of the Church year.

There are two Gospels proclaimed at today’s Mass. The first, proclaimed before the procession with palms, tells of Jesus’ triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. Riding on a borrowed colt, Jesus was hailed by the crowds as they blessed God and shouted “Hosanna!”

Jesus’ passion and death are presented as the consequence of the tension between the Jewish authorities and Jesus that had been building throughout his public ministry. This tension reached its breaking point when Jesus drove the merchants and moneychangers from the Temple. After this event, the chief priests and scribes began seeking a way to put Jesus to death, and yet, this is only the surface explanation for his death. When he was brought before Pilate, however, the religious authorities presented his crime as a political one, charging that Jesus claimed to be king of the Jews.

We are challenged to consider the claim with which the Gospel begins: Jesus is the Son of God. Reading Mark’s account of the passion, we begin to comprehend the deeper theological statement being made about Jesus’ death. Mark tells us that Jesus understood his death is preordained, and he accepted this death in obedience to God’s will. Jesus understood his anointing in Bethany as an anticipation of his burial, and he announced that this story would be told together with the Gospel throughout the world. Jesus predicted his betrayal by Judas as well as Peter’s denial. At his arrest, Jesus acknowledged that the preordained time had arrived. Jesus was both confident and silent before his accusers. After his death sentence, Jesus did not speak again until his final cry from the cross. The bystanders misunderstood and believed that he was calling for Elijah. The Roman centurion, however, affirmed what Mark has presented throughout this Gospel: Jesus is the Son of God.

MARCH INTENTION

For the new martyrs
We pray that those who risk their Church with their courage and missionary enthusiasm.

Covenant with Noah Chapter 9 - Verses 9-17

God said to Noah and to his sons with him:
See I am now establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you and with every living creature that was with you: the birds, the tame animals, and all the wild animals that were with you--all that came out of the ark.

I will establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all creatures be destroyed by the waters of a flood, there shall not be another flood to devastate the earth.

God Said: This is the sign of the covenant that I am making between me and you for all ages to come:

I set my bow in the clouds to serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.
When I bring clouds over the earth, and the bow appears in the clouds, I will remember my covenant between me and you and every living creature—every mortal being—so that the waters will never again become a flood to destroy every mortal being.

When the bow appears in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature—every mortal being that is on earth.

God told Noah: This is the sign of the covenant I have established between me and every mortal being that is on earth.

The Call to Stewardship

Jan Malinowski

The Call to Stewardship

When Jesus washed the feet of the apostles at the Last Supper, he told them to do as he had done, to serve one another in the most basic ways. There are those in our parish who clearly heed Jesus’ call and exercise their Stewardship by providing all of us with a clean and beautiful environment in which to encounter Christ. They are the members of the Church Caretaking and Sacred Arts and Environment Ministries.

Every weekend the Church Caretakers dust, vacuum, polish and scrub the church from the sacristy to the portico, and the bathrooms as well. It is not work that brings them a lot of notice, but all of us would certainly notice if that work was not done with care and faithfulness each week.

Our clean church is made even more beautiful by the members of the Sacred Arts and Environment Ministry who share their talents, and often their own treasure, to arrange and place donated and purchased flowers and plants around the altar and statues. They work especially hard at Christmas and Easter to provide seasonal flowers with monetary donations that parishioners provide in special envelopes. Their efforts glorify God and enhance our prayerful environment to remind us of the abundance and beauty of God’s gifts to us all.

We wish to publicly recognize and thank the members of the Church Caretaking and Sacred Arts and Environment Ministries for their tireless efforts which make us comfortable and uplift our spirits. Our Church Caretaking Ministry members are: Ana Aiu, Edita Duldulao, Lois Hollis, Ross Moodie, Ilyn Narciso, Francisco (Coco) Rarangol, Cindy Refit, Molly Showater, Lisa Tekurio, Philton Velasco and Susan . The members of the Sacred Arts and Environment Ministry are:

Jayssiann Baki, Gina Manuel, Ilyn Narciso, Molly Showater. While these dedicated volunteers do a remarkable job, more helpers are always welcome and needed to share the service to our parish. If you are willing and able to join in or support one of these ministries, please contact Ilyn Narciso at 808-987-9758.

GOOD FRIDAY
3 DEEP FRIED HOKI FISH
Rice, Potato/Mac Salad
Wakame Salad
$15.00

If you haven’t purchased your fish fry ticket yet, they are available at every mass, look for Sharen, Ilyn or Sally and also at the church office.

We are in need of ingredients for the wakame salad and rice. It would be very helpful also to receive a supply of quart and gallon sized zip lock bags. These bags helps us to bag leftover foods, not only for a fundraiser, but also for other activities that food is being served. Mahalo.

If you feel inclined, we could use help in the kitchen with frying, assembling and serving food.

Our Lenten Fry enables you to be able to have dinner after a day of fasting and prayer. You are free from making dinner for the night.

Mahalo nui loa for all the helping hands doing stewardship. Your generosity with your time and work has made a difference in the lives of the people living in the Sacred Heart Kupuna Housing.
