Cannot Marry in the Catholic Church Due to A Prior Marriage?

Pope Francis streamlined the process to petition for a declaration of nullity to make the process shorter. He also eliminated the mandatory fee. If a person is able to prove in this process that their prior martial bond was invalid for some reason, that he or she can marry in the Catholic Church or validate a current civil marriage. For assistance in petitioning, you can contact Sharen Chaves, Ruth Statler or Jim and Jan Manion at 8089658202. They will assist you as an advocate.

1st Holy Communion and Confirmation 2022

Most Reverend Bishop Larry Silva and Reverend John T. Molina

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoa, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent and treasure.

Sunday Connection

John 14:23-29

Jesus promises his disciples that the Father will send the Advocate, the Holy Spirit.

This portion of John's Gospel comes near the end of the first of four chapters that make up Jesus' long farewell discourse at the Last Supper. This section of chapter 14 actually sums up the themes of the opening of the discourse: the Christian's life is not shaped by Jesus' absence but by God's abiding presence; God's presence overcomes anxiety about God's absence; and the present holds in it the seeds of a fresh future shaped by love, not fear.

These verses also contain a glimpse of some of the other themes of the farewell discourse: Jesus' relationship with the Father and the disciples' relationship to Jesus connect the disciples to the Father as well. Jesus promises to send an Advocate or intercessor who will remind the disciples of everything that Jesus taught them and bring them peace.

Jesus is preparing his disciples in advance for his absence so that they will continue to believe in him and not feel all alone after his return to the Father. After the initial excitement of his Easter appearances, Jesus will remain with his followers in a very different way throughout the centuries.

As our celebration of the Easter season is coming to an end, the liturgy reminds us that Jesus remains with us through the Holy Spirit, who teaches us everything we need to know, reminds us of all that Jesus taught, and brings us peace.

This is not a step to be undertaken lightly, so the group, under the guidance of Sharen Chaves, Janet Manion, Maila Naiga and Anna Manalo have been studying every Saturday since October to be sure they understood what the sacraments and Christian life are all about. They learned their basic prayers including the Sign of the Cross, the Our Father and the Creed, the 10 Commandments, the parts and meaning of the Mass and the Sacraments, and how to behave at Mass. But receiving the Sacraments is not the end of their Christian education. They will continue in age appropriate classes in the Religious Education program to grow and develop their spirituality and understanding of the Stewardship of our time, talents, and treasures that all Christians are called to as followers of Jesus.

As members of the Church community, we should all celebrate these young treasures among us and encourage all who have not yet received their Sacraments to come to Jesus and help to build the kingdom of heaven. Speak to Fr. John if you or your children are among those in need of preparation for Confession, Confirmation or Holy Communion.

POPE FRANCIS PRAYER INTENTION

May

Faith-Filled Young People

We pray for all young people, called to live life to the fullest; may they see in Mary's life the way to listen, the depth of discernment, the courage that faith generates, and the dedication to service.

Meditation Path

Consider being a steward, taking part in the responsibility for the care of a Station. Still open are crosses 1, 2, 6, 11 and 14. Parishioners and their families may adopt a Station, personalize it, plant flowers and foliage around the cross, beautify and maintain the area throughout the year. On Good Friday, you will have the honor of doing the reading at your adopted cross. Please speak to George or you may drop in the office or call 808 965 8202.

Mahalo for Caring!

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Today's reading from Revelation offers a vision for the City of Gold, the new Jerusalem. "But" the bishops' pastoral on stewardship reminds us, "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now."
