MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoa, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities.

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent and treasure.

LIVING the WORD

A Reflection on Matthew 25:31-46

BE YOUR OWN JUDGE

When a celebration is held to acknowledge the king of a country, we expect pomp and glory, festivities, fireworks, and we also expect loyal subjects to give praise and homage to their king. Today is the solemnity of our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe and the gospel shows us very little of these. Yes, the Son of Man appears to all the nations in his glory, seated on his throne of his Father, and attended by angels - but he then steps into a field of sheep and goats. He had better be wearing sturdy boots and not fancy king shoes.

Of course, the sheep and goats are a figure of speech. He stands in the midst of his people and calls the blessed to come forth and inherit the kingdom of God. Notice he does not ask who worshiped him, who beseeched him, who prayed to him – not to say these are not important. He is interested in who fed him, gave him drink, clothed him and welcomed him, who nursed and visited him, who opened their hearts and spirit to him. We may find this peculiar, but it is exactly what our heavenly King should be interested in knowing if his reign is to be just. These actions are part of the justice of God, and as his subject, we are to be about the King's business of bringing justice. Earlier in Matthew's gospel (12:50) Jesus defines his brothers and sisters as 'those who do the will of my Father in heaven.' That is how we give homage to the King of the Universe. If any of us has done the will of the Father, then we can step forward, or we can step back to be judged and found lacking

On this last day of the liturgical year we celebrate the universal Kingship of Jesus and we also celebrate whether or not we wisely used this past year to root ourselves more deeply in the call of discipleship. In the parable, the Son of Man comes at the end of time to judge. Luckily for most of us, today is not the end of time. Yet, today we are asked to be our own judge, and to be honest with our verdict. Do you get to enter the kingdom or are you to be turned away?

The new liturgical year starts next Sunday. We can make good use of that fresh start to better heed the call to a true gospel life, of self-giving, growing in a life of be-attitude, wisdom, grace, and light. If today any of us were judged for falling short in doing the will of the Father, let's take the opportunity of this liturgical new year to start afresh and strive to become the true brothers and sisters of Jesus.

POPE FRANCIS PRAYER INTENTIONS

Artificial Intelligence

We pray that the progress of robotics and artificial intelligence may always serve humankind.

Christ the King

When the Son of Man comes in glory, may we be among those who have fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, and clothed the naked. For Jesus tell us clearly that it is those who have demonstrated good stewardship by sharing their gifts with the less fortunate who will receive God's blessing and inherit the kingdom.

BISHOP LARRY'S DISPENSATION UPDATE

“Since mid-March through October 31, 2020 I have issued a dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays in order to prevent the spread of COVID-19. I am hereby extending that dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation through December 31, 2020. As I do so, however, I urge everyone who is able to return to Mass, without undue risks to their health or the health of others, to do so. Please note that in the Diocese of Honolulu, besides all Sundays, the holy days of obligation are the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception on Tuesday, December 8; and Christmas on Friday, December 25. Again, while all are dispensed from the obligation of attending, I urge you to do so if you can. It is highly recommended that those who do avail themselves of the dispensation substitute some other prayer experience so that worship of God does not lose its primary focus in our lives.”

SACRED HEART ONLINE CHRISTMAS FAIR

In light of our current situation with COVID-19 and all of the restrictions that we have to adhere to keep ourselves and our loved ones safe, we are planning to engage in a new venture to help our parish.

If you have things that you would like to donate to the parish, you would take a picture with your phone and send it to: shpahoa@gmail.com. We will advertise the item on a social media forum, through the parish. The buyer will have to be present to pick their purchase at the church at which time payment will be collected.

Some of the suggested items are, plants, from vegetable seedlings to growing plants, to flowering plants. You may also donate dry goods, from kitchenware to tools and crafts. We cannot accept clothing. We will also take orders for food items from bake goods to cooked foods that you might want to cook/bake and advertise to sell on Sacred Heart's Online Christmas Fair.

All of these suggestions are creative ways to help our parish fill a void created by the pandemic. It will be our Christmas fundraiser.

Mahalo for your participation. Father and Sharen are ready to answer any question you might have. As this is a new endeavor, we will all be learning as we enter into this new normal.
