MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoa, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities.

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent and treasure

Sunday Connection

Mark 10:17-30 (shorter form Mark 10:17-27)

A man with many possessions asks Jesus what he must do to gain eternal life.

Jesus laments the challenges faced by those who are rich in following him and entering the Kingdom of God. In reply to the disciples' astonishment at the strictness of the standard that Jesus speaks about today, Jesus reminds his disciples that nothing is impossible with God. Salvation is determined by our ability to rely completely upon God. Our personal relationship with Jesus is also an invitation to the community of faith, the Church.

Today's gospel features the two requirements made of the unnamed wealthy man who approaches Jesus inquiring about what he must do to inherit eternal life. Jesus tells him first, he must give up his possessions. Christians have generally understood that at the least, following Jesus requires that believers hold material possessions loosely and remain vigilant against seeking security in accumulating possessions. The second requirement Jesus makes of this man is the invitation that Jesus extends to all would-be disciples: "follow me." Jesus very much wants this man to be his disciple. This gospel tells us that Jesus loves the man and is sad when he departs, so too, Jesus loves us and is saddened when we are unable to follow him.

Today's gospel might make us uncomfortable about our possessions. This discomfort offers us an opportunity to consider our possessions and our family's commitment to the poor. Material possessions are a necessity in our culture. Our use of these possessions and our attitude about their importance is our choice. It is a choice we can make with the awareness that our faith in Jesus commits us to show our care for the poor.

Twenty Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks the rich young man to give away all that he has in order to have treasure in heaven. But he is unable to free himself from his possessions, and so he goes away sadly. Does what I own keep me from following Jesus?

Ohana in Christ Campaign 2021

The Catholic Church’s most important resource is its people. The Roman Catholic Church in the Sate of Hawaii has approximately 1,500 employees working on our parishes, schools and Diocesan Offices. To care for our employees, who are doing the Lord’s work every day, we must ensure that they receive quality benefits and opportunities for continual development, and that we are compliant with ever-changing federal and state employment laws. To support our talented and motivated workforce, we must employ some basic tool, including an effective human resources information system and payroll system, which provide the foundation for compensation models, benefits administration, recognition and reward programs. They also help us hire the right people.

The business of the diocese consists of ministries too many to mention in this write up but be assured that your gifts and donations are managed as treasures to be wisely spent benefitting the Diocese of Honolulu, which means all of us.

On a diocesan level, plans are formulated to encompass every parish regardless of membership or income.

At Sacred Heart Parish, Pahoia, we are a parish that is familiar with hardships and disasters, we have proven to ourselves that we are resilient, we are compassionate, and we share our resources to help others. In this same act of giving which is our part of our mission statement, we have committed and shared with our diocese of our means and not from our extra. We have come through at every turn to support our brothers and sisters in Christ and continue to do so. Please know that your contribution and any future support you wish to share is appreciated above and beyond. The diocese has prepared campaign literature for the Ohana in Christ Campaign, for which we have already collected, but consider their campaign for the upcoming 2022-2023.
