MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoia, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities.

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by, communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent, and treasure..

SUNDAY CONNECTION

Mark 10:17-30 (shorter form Mark 10:17-27)

A man with many possessions asks Jesus what he must do to gain eternal life.

In today's Gospel, an unnamed man approaches Jesus and inquires about what he must do to inherit eternal life. Jesus replies that one must follow the commandments of the Law of Moses. The man acknowledges that he has observed all of these since his childhood. Jesus then says that only one thing is lacking: he must give his possessions to the poor and follow Jesus. The man leaves in sadness, and Mark tells us that this is because he had many possessions.

Jesus makes two requirements of the wealthy man who approaches him. First, he must give up his possessions. Some Christians have taken this literally and have generally understood that at the least, following Jesus requires that believers hold material possessions loosely and remain vigilant against seeking security in accumulating possessions. The second requirement Jesus makes of this man is the invitation that Jesus extends to all would-be disciples: "follow me." Jesus very much wants this man to be his disciple. We believe that the Christian faith is one in which each believer is in a personal relationship with Jesus. Just as this Gospel tells us that Jesus loves the man and is sad when he departs, so too, Jesus loves us and is saddened when we are unable to follow him.

Peter replies to Jesus by boasting that the disciples have already given up everything. Jesus acknowledges that those who have given up everything for the sake of the Gospel will be rewarded. This reward begins now, in the new community that one will gain in this life and will continue in the eternal age to come. Our personal relationship with Jesus is also an invitation to the community of faith, the Church.

Pope Francis Intention

October

For a shared mission
We pray that the Church continue to sustain in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, the communion and the mission shared among priests, religious and lay people.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's gospel, Jesus asks the rich young man to give away all that he has in order to have treasure in heaven. But he is unable to free himself from his possessions and so he goes sadly away. Does what I own keep me from following Jesus?

The season of gift giving is getting close and we are gathering names of children in families whom would not be blessed with Christmas gifts. If you have a family or know of a family whom you could be an angel to, please look for the form at the back of the church. Fill it out and return it to ushers or the church office. We have a deadline to meet and would like to be able to help everyone possible. Mahalo for your thoughtfulness.

6 WAYS TO PRAY THE HOLY ROSARY WITH DEVOTION Inspired by St. Josemaria's personal example, following are six ways to pray the Holy Rosary with devotion to honor the Queen of the Most Holy Rosary during this special month dedicated to her:

- 1. Pray the rosary daily privately or with friends and family.
"Develop a lively devotion for Our Mother. She knows how to respond in a most sensitive way to the presents we give her. What is more, if you say the Holy Rosary every day, with a spirit of faith and love, Our Lady will make sure she leads you very far along her Son's path" (Furrow, no. 691).
- 2. Pray the rosary during the day—try not to postpone it until the end of the day or bedtime.
"You always leave the Rosary for later, and you end up not saying it at all because you are sleepy. —If there is no other time, say it in the street without letting anybody notice it. It will, moreover, help you to have presence of God" (Furrow, no. 478).
- 3. If possible, use a book like "Holy Rosary" or an audio recording of the Rosary to help you enter more deeply into each mystery.
"—Have you... ever contemplated these mysteries? (...) Come with me and —this is the essence of what I have to confide— we will live the life of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Each day we will render them a new service. We will hear their family conversations. We will see the Messiah grow up. We will admire His thirty years of hidden life... We will be present at His Passion and Death... We will be awed by the Glory of His Resurrection... In a word: we will contemplate, carried away with Love (the only real love is Love), each and every instant of Christ Jesus" (Holy Rosary, Author's Note).
- 4. When praying the family rosary, especially with young children, use a booklet or app that shows an image for each mystery of the rosary.
- 5. When you see an image of Our Lady at home, on the street or in Church, direct a glance at it and send her an affectionate interior prayer or greeting.
This was a practice St. Josemaria started from a young age and that he recommended to others throughout his life.
- 6. Make a pilgrimage to a nearby church or shrine dedicated to Mary.
St. Josemaria believed that a "local pilgrimage" with a small group of friends or family is a good way to honor the Blessed Virgin and to help us to be more devoted to her. Traditionally, a "local pilgrimage" includes, if possible, walking to and from the shrine or walking part of the way to and from the shrine; reciting five mysteries of the rosary on the way; praying another five mysteries of the rosary at the shrine; and praying another five mysteries of the rosary on the way back.

All Saints and All Souls Days are soon to be here
November 1st and 2nd

A time to gather family members and remember our loved ones who are laid to rest at the back of our church as well as other various cemeteries.

Be thankful that they are at peace at their resting places and we, in appreciation of this blessed site, feel a spirit of unity with our loved ones at rest, our church and all who are with us today, of being one Ohana.

In showing appreciation, we come to malama (take care) the gravesites, cleaning the tombstone, taking care of the grass, cleaning the debris that blows around and adorn your loved ones with flowers.

Sacred Heart is very blessed to have people who regularly and genuinely feel responsible to keep our cemetery clean and neat at no cost to the church. They give of their time, money and Aloha. A donation for gasoline and other necessities to upkeep the grounds would be more than appreciated. A case of water is always needed.

A heartfelt Mahalo to everyone who will join in unity to Malama Ohana.
