The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary

"Say the Rosary every day...Pray, pray a lot and offer sacrifices to sinners...I'm Our Lady of the Rosary. Only I will be able to help you. ...in the end My Immaculate Heart will triumph." - Our Lady at Fatima

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoa, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities.

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent and treasure

Sunday Connection

Mark 10:35-45

Jesus teaches that those who wish to be great must be the servant of all.

In today's Gospel, James and John ask to be given seats of honor when Jesus enters into his glory. Once again, the disciples seem to be selective in what they hear Jesus say. They want to share Jesus' glory, but do not appear to understand that his glory will be preceded by his suffering. Jesus notes their lack of understanding and predicts the suffering they will endure for the sake of the Gospel. Jesus says that the honor they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear what James and John have asked, Mark reports that they are indignant. Jesus takes the opportunity to teach them.

Jesus explains the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple. In particular, he seems to be preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles in the emerging Christian community.

In the daily routine of family life, power struggles seem unavoidable. Whenever two or more people live together, there will be occasions of disagreement and attempts to exert influence over each other. Today's Gospel can be an invitation to consider how authority is exercised in your household. There is a temptation to exercise our authority in ways that show our power over others. Especially when conflicts emerge, many of us rely upon the power we believe our role gives to us. Jesus teaches us that there is a more persuasive form of leadership. In these daily challenges we have the opportunity to practice and teach the kind of service and leadership Jesus modeled for us in his ministry and in his passion and death.

Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Good stewards must not argue about who is the most important. Today's Gospel says clearly that those who aspire to greatness must humbly serve the needs of all. Even Jesus came not to be served, but to serve.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY
OCTOBER 24, 2021

Next weekend, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in the next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR WORLD MISSION DAY 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Once we experience the power of God's love and recognize his fatherly presence in our personal and community life, we cannot help but proclaim and share what we have seen and heard. Jesus' relationship with his disciples and his humanity, as revealed to us in the mystery of his Incarnation, Gospel and Paschal Mystery, shows us the extent to which God loves our humanity and makes his own our joys and sufferings, our hopes and our concerns (cf. Gaudium et Spes, 22). Everything about Christ reminds us that he knows well our world and its need for redemption, and calls us to become actively engaged in this mission: "Go therefore to the highways and byways, and invite everyone you find" (Mt 22:9). No one is excluded, no one need feel distant or removed from this compassionate love.

Ohana in Christ Campaign 2021

The Catholic Church’s most important resource is its people. The Roman Catholic Church in the Sate of Hawaii has approximately 1,500 employees working on our parishes, schools and Diocesan Offices. To care for our employees, who are doing the Lord’s work every day, we must ensure that they receive quality benefits and opportunities for continual development, and that we are compliant with ever-changing federal and state employment laws. To support our talented and motivated workforce, we must employ some basic tool, including an effective human resources information system and payroll system, which provide the foundation for compensation models, benefits administration, recognition and reward programs. They also help us hire the right people.

The business of the diocese consists of ministries too many to mention in this write up but be assured that your gifts and donations are managed as treasures to be wisely spent benefitting the Diocese of Honolulu, which means all of us.

On a diocesan level, plans are formulated to encompass every parish regardless of membership or income.

At Sacred Heart Parish, Pahoia, we are a parish that is familiar with hardships and disasters, we have proven to ourselves that we are resilient, we are compassionate, and we share our resources to help others. In this same act of giving which is our part of our mission statement, we have committed and shared with our diocese of our means and not from our extra. We have come through at every turn to support our brothers and sisters in Christ and continue to do so. Please know that your contribution and any future support you wish to share is appreciated above and beyond. The diocese has prepared campaign literature for the Ohana in Christ Campaign, for which we have already collected, but consider their campaign for the upcoming 2022-2023.
