MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoa, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities.

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent and treasure.

Giving, Receiving and Sharing the Spirit

Acts 2:1-11 Ps 104:1,24,29-30,31,32 1Cor 12:3b-7,12-13 Jn 20:29-23

Pentecost is a feast of giving and receiving. It is the Jewish feast that occurs 50 days after Passover and celebrates God giving the Torah to the Jewish people. We celebrate Pentecost as God giving the Holy Spirit to the disciples and to the whole Church. It is a celebration of the life and birth of the Church and the rebirth of all believers being continually filled and enlivened by the Spirit.

Pentecost is not a celebration of a day long past for the Spirit is ever alive, ever dynamic, ever giving, living and radiant. There are seven gifts of the Holy Spirit which we all received through Baptism: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and awe of the Lord. These come to fullness at our Confirmation when we are called to be more Christ-like in every way. These gifts actively bear fruit which aid us on our daily journey towards the perfection Jesus calls us to. All of us are to develop and grow in strength of character, in being charitable and generous, joyful, peaceful and peace making, patient and kind, modest, chaste, and to be faithful in all we do. The Holy Spirit also continues to grow within each and every one of us by bringing forth our very own unique God-given talents. Sharing these many gifts allows us to build up the Body of Christ and continue Jesus' saving mission here in our community and in the world.

We might feel this is just a bit too much action for these uncertain and dark Covid-19 days. We feel safer at home, away from any crowds, even from our extended family and close friends. Yet, the Spirit has been given us, are we to hold back from its promptings? St. Theresa of Avila wrote: "Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which he blesses all the world. Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are his body. Christ has no body now on earth but yours." If this is true, then let the fire of Pentecost illumine your heart. Let the driving wind open the door to new life. Proclaim the mighty deeds of God. Let's be Spirit filled, let's be Christ, here and now to those who share our homes, to organizations serving the many needs of our community, to those we can reach out to by Facebook, Zoom, Instagram, a phone call, text, email, and even snail mail. There are many ways to share the gifts of the Spirit without leaving home, just open your heart and mind and be a bright burning flame in someone's life today.

Can't receive the Eucharist?

Here's how to make a spiritual communion

By: Aleteia, a Catholic website

Because of the Covid-19, Bishop Larry has suspended Holy Mass until June 30, 2020. In times like this, the Church encourages us to make an act of "spiritual communion," where we unite ourselves to God through prayer. It is a beautiful way to express to God our desire to be united with him when we are unable to complete that union in the reception of Holy Communion.

Countless saints incorporated this type of prayer into their daily lives, not being satisfied with receiving Jesus in the Eucharist once a week or even once a day. Making an act of spiritual communion for them was an essential part of life and drew them closer to God on a daily basis.

St. Josemaria Escriva encouraged everyone to make a spiritual communion as often as they could, "what a source of grace there is in spiritual communion! Practice it frequently and you'll have greater presence of God and closer union with him in all your actions."

Padre Pio also had a habit of making a spiritual communion throughout the day outside of the celebration of Mass. He desired to be always united with Jesus Christ in everything he did.

Below is a traditional prayer of spiritual communion that many saints have prayed over the years. The ultimate goal of our lives should be communion with God and an act of spiritual communion can help a person draw closer to that goal.

*My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
And I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
Receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.
Amen.*

MAY BLOCK ROSARY

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the “Stay at Home” proclamation, we will be hosting our annual May Block Rosary differently this May. While we cannot gather together at people’s homes we can still gather in spirit. Each day, Holy Mass will be offered especially for you and your family, as well as your intentions. To sign up, all we need is your name and the date you selected. Here are two ways to sign up.

1. Facebook: leave a comment with May Block Rosary as the header plus your name and the date you selected.

2. Email: send an email to shpahoasocialmedia@gmail.com with May Block Rosary as the subject and put your name and date you selected in the message box.

IN THE END, THE HEART OF MARY WILL TRIUMPH!

LET US PRAY THE ROSARY!

ALL PARISH MINISTRY MEMBERS

By: E Komo Mai Task Force

We are working diligently to re-open our parish church in the next several weeks. In order to follow the social distancing requirements of the CDC, the State of Hawaii and the Diocese, we must limit the number of people who, on a normal Sunday, would participate in the lector, greeter, altar server, music and the Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion ministries.

Once we re-open there will be only one lector, altar server, cantor, and Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion at the weekday, Vigil and Sunday Holy Masses. The greeter’s ministry is temporarily suspended.

For the time being, a newly organized usher ministry will assist people into the church, to Holy Communion and assist them to orderly exit the church.

Schedules will be sent to all needed members of these ministries. We sincerely thank all ministries for their continued understanding, patience and support.

PENTACOST SUNDAY

The Season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the Feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, John 20:19-23, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. Yet the event in John's Gospel takes place on Easter Sunday. There is no need to reconcile these two accounts. It is enough that we know that after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

We already heard today's Gospel proclaimed on the Second Sunday of Easter this year (Lectionary Cycle A). That Gospel passage, however, also included the description of Jesus' appearance to Thomas. In that context, we were led to reflect on belief and unbelief.

In the context of the Feast of Pentecost John 20:19-23 reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." He breathes the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and sends them to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins. Jesus' act of breathing the Holy Spirit mirrors God's act of breathing life into Adam at the time of Creation. In fact, both the Greek and Hebrew words for "spirit" can also be translated as "breath."

This Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. The reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church's sacramental life. In the Sacrament of Penance, the Church celebrates the mercy of God through the forgiving of sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people.
