Sisters and Brothers of Sacred Heart Church,

My name is Deacon Charley Mapa. I have recently been asked by our Bishop, Larry Silva, to serve you at Sacred Heart. I, of course, said, "Sure!", after all, Deacons serve at the pleasure of their Bishop.

I served at my home Parish of St. Theresa as Deacon for just over a year now, further developed by the patient and capable hands of Father Sammy and supported so well by my brother Deacon, Jim Dougherty.

I have been married for a very long time to my wife and partner, Gwenda. She is a wonderful, talented, human being, spouse, mother, grandmother, sister and friend to many. God has blessed me most richly through her.

I have served in many capacities in my parishes. I have a lifetime of experience, and I look forward to seeing where I will fit in at Sacred Heart.

Peace,
Deacon Charley

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoa, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities.

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent and treasure

Cannot Marry in the Catholic Due to A Prior Marriage?

Pope Francis streamlined the process to petition for a declaration of nullity to make the process shorter. He also eliminated the mandatory fee. If a person is able to prove in this process that their prior martial bond was invalid for some reason, that he or she can marry in the Catholic Church or validate a current civil marriage. For assistance in petitioning, you can contact Sharen Chaves or Ruth Statler at 8089658202 who can assist you as an advocate.

Sunday Connection

Luke 6:39-45

Each tree is known by its yield.

The four parables in Luke's Sermon on the Plains are about how to be a good disciple. This week concludes Luke's Sermon on the Plains.

The blind cannot lead the blind. And a disciple cannot be a good disciple unless he or she has learned from the teacher. Everyone who is fully trained is like the teacher who knows how to cure the blind. Before you can be a good disciple and teach others you must take care of yourself. Do not try to take a speck out of your brother's eye until you have taken the board out of your own. Finally, only when you have purified yourself can you produce the good works that the teacher requires. Discipleship asks us to produce good deeds. But to produce them requires the integrity and purity of heart found in the teacher. When people see your good deeds they will know that this is because you have a good heart.

Jesus' parables in this week's Gospel are a reminder of the importance of continued learning, prayer and reflection, and humility in our discipleship. We shine God's light in the world when we are "lit from within" with God's grace, willing to examine our own conscience and recognize our own need for transformation through Jesus.

We may sometimes be challenged to find time and energy to care for ourselves and attend to our own spiritual growth. Yet, in doing so, we improve our relationships and help guide our fellow people in their faith.

All of today's readings remind us that our works reflect what is in our hearts. Do my works and actions reveal a heart that is grateful for—and generous in sharing—the abundance God had poured into my life?

... stewards of Tradition
Quinquagesima Sunday
February 27, 2022

As Jesus went to Jerusalem, approaching near to Jericho, a blind man being in the highway a begging, and hearing a multitude of people pass by, asked who t'was: they answered, Jesus of Nazareth; he cried out aloud, "Jesus the son of David, have mercy upon me," Jesus caused him to be brought unto him, and asked him saying, what wilt thou I do unto thee? he answered, "Lord that I may see". This blind man signified a sinner, who doubtless, if he were not stark blind, believing as he doth, that it were the greatest folly in the world

(as is aforesaid) nor no folly like it, to loose his soul to gain all the world: and yet will give it so little a trifle, as will make a mortal sin, which may be a very small matter sometimes.

...Let them keep themselves in the Catholic Church, which is the highway to salvation, where many occasions may be, of preaching, of prayer, of fasting, of Sacraments, and of good company, whereby they may be cured of their blindness.

This is the way where our Lord doeth pass and especially in the sacrifice of the Mass, where Christ passes by every day, there may we see Christ, when the priest lifted up the sacred host, calling us to penance, & stretching his arms abroad to embrace us: and then let us cry our unto him to illuminate our blindness.

And if anything hinder us, or seem to rebuke us (as the disciples did this blind man) Let us cry so much the more unto God as this blind man did.

Word to live by this week:

- In you, O LORD, I hope. Let me never hope in You in vain.
- LORD, that I may see.

SYNOD KEY QUESTION:

How can all the members of the Catholic Church be more effective in proclaim the living Jesus Christ to the world?

Bishop Larry sends us a message, asking for our participation to be involved in the worldwide engagement to prepare for the

Synod of Bishops in October, 2023

The Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission.

Our local deadline of February 28, is here. Bishop Larry asks everyone to give special attention and thought to the question at hand. Catholics and non-Catholics are invited to participate in this reflection. Everyone is invited to discuss and share reflections. The exercise itself is enriching, engaging and informative. These discussions will help our Church to grow, locally, nationally, and internationally.

Synod of Bishops – Diocese of Honolulu Phase
(catholicahawaii.org) Is where you can go the participate.

May the Lord Bless you all as we walk together on this journey of renewal of ourselves and our Church!
