June 26 & 27th, Lets honor our Patron Saint with leis and rejoice in his Glory

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoa, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities.

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent and treasure.

Mark 5:21-43

Jesus heals a woman afflicted with a hemorrhage and raises Jairus's daughter from death

Today's Gospel reports two stories of healing. One story tells us about a father's great love for his dying daughter. The other is about a desperate woman who risks much as she seeks healing from Jesus. In each story, the request for healing is itself a courageous act of faith, and yet very different circumstances are represented by the lives of each suffering person.

Jairus, a synagogue official, distraught over his daughter's poor health, approaches Jesus and asks him to heal her. Without many details, we can imagine that his daughter has been ill for some time and that her condition is deteriorating.

As Jesus leaves with Jairus, a woman secretly touches Jesus and is immediately cured. In response, Jesus turns and asks who touched him knowing that power has gone out of him. The woman could have remained anonymous, yet at Jesus' question she steps forward and acknowledges that it was she. Jesus responds by acknowledging her as a model of faith and sends her away in peace.

At this point, messengers suddenly arrive and confirm Jairus's worst fear: his daughter has died. Jesus curiously ignores their message and reassures Jairus. When they arrive at Jairus's home, they find family and friends mourning the girl's death. Jesus enters the room of the dead girl, takes her by the hand, and instructs her to arise. Jairus's faith in Jesus has not been in vain; his daughter is restored to life.

The contrasts between Jairus and the woman with the hemorrhage are stark. One is a man, the other is a woman; an important person in the community and a woman who has lost everything finding cure. One approaches Jesus publicly. The other approaches Jesus secretly. In each case, faith leads them to seek out Jesus in their time of need.

The Gospel concludes with Jesus' instructions to remain silent about this miracle. Those who witness Jesus' power and authority are instructed to not speak of what they have witnessed. It is difficult to understand the purpose of these instructions. But, in the end, everyone must make his or her own judgment about Jesus' identity and his or her own act of faith in affirming Jesus as God's Son.

The Beauty of Marriage

Let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness and patience.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's second reading, St. Paul provides a wonderful one-sentence summary of Christian stewardship:

Out of love, place yourselves at one another's service.
