MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoa, Hawaii, strive to be a community of faith. We believe we are called by God to be disciples of Jesus Christ and to be good stewards within the Church and our local communities.

We are called to praise and reverence God, to support one another on our journey of faith, to work for the salvation of our souls, and to labor for peace and justice. By the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, we do this by communal liturgical worship, faith sharing, ongoing faith formation, stewardship, outreach ministries, and by selflessly giving of our time, talent and treasure

Sunday Connection

Mark 12:28b-34

Jesus is questioned by a scribe about the greatest commandment.

Jesus' Great Commandment, his teaching that we are to both love God and love our neighbor as ourselves. Our neighbors aren't just the people who live close to us. Everyone is our neighbor.

The question posed today by the Jewish community requires Jesus to interpret the Law of Moses. The Mosaic Law consists of the Ten Commandments and many additional commandments, numbering into the hundreds. For a devout Jew, adherence to the Mosaic Law is an expression of faithfulness to God's covenant with Israel. The ranking of these commandments was regularly debated among the teachers of the Law.

As Christians, our moral behavior is guided by the two-part commandment taught by Jesus in today's Gospel: love God and love your neighbor as yourself. Many of us learned to use this framework as an examination of conscience. By examining our lives through the lens of these commandments, we have learned that the challenge of these commandments is not in our desire to follow them but in our capacity to consistently honor these commandments in our daily lives.

Jesus teaches us that the key to the Kingdom of God is found in balancing our love for God, our love for ourselves, and our love for our neighbors.

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR WORLD MISSION

DAY 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We can think of the peripheries all around us, in the heart of our cities or our own families. Universal openness to love has a dimension that is not geographical but existential. Always, but especially in these times of pandemic, it is important to grow in our daily ability to widen our circle, to reach out to others who, albeit physically close to us, are not immediately part of our "circle of interests" (cf. Fratelli Tutti, 97). To be on mission is to be willing to think as Christ does, to believe with him that those around us are also my brothers and sisters. May his compassionate love touch our hearts and make us all true missionary disciples.

- There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same spirit' there are different form of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone....As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many are one body in Christ. 1Corinthians 12:1-4-6, 12
- "I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven: whoever eats this bread will live forever. I am the living bread that come down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." John 6:48-51
- *When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his one for another, as a shepherd separates the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then the king will say to those on his right, "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave drink a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me." Then the righteous will answer him and say, 'Lord, when did we see your hungry and feed your, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see o ill or in prison, and visit you? And the king will say to them in reply, 'amen, I say to you whatever you did for one, of these least brother for me, you did for me.
