

"The best parental training is accomplished when we opt for inspiration instead of coercion. You do this by discovering the child's natural desires and unique abilities and by encouraging the behavior that will allow him or her to develop accordingly."

Charles Swindoll

How do you realize your child's "natural tendencies and unique abilities"? How do you guide them into a life of deep value? You CAN do it, and we can help!

Our digital portfolio allows you to make guided and important observations about your child. As you add the information into the portfolio, their path becomes clearer. There are areas for your child to contribute throughout the process as well.

What you need to know:

- *Great to start at any age
- *Grows with your child
- *You control who sees it
- *Your child can use it for college and job applications when they are ready.

What you need to do:

- *Visit educationalive.com
- *Click "Order Yours Today!"