Fratelli La Bufala Story

A long time ago, in the region of Campania, in Southern Italy and in the town of Eboli, a picturesque town in the Salerno hinterland, a family lived happy to live on the fruit of a generous land rich in traditions. His father, with hard work, enthusiastic dedication and immense passion, produced a delicious water buffalo mozzarella from Campania, so good and renowned that his three sons: Giuseppe, Antonio and Gennaro, were effectively called by everyone: Fratelli la Bufala. When one day family serenity was shattered by the untimely death of their beloved father, the three brothers suddenly found themselves catapulted into the drama of having to make the decision that would change their lives forever: stay or leave? They chose the adventure ... and so, after having sold the paternal company, divided the proceeds equally, they left, each to a different destination, each alone with the suitcases loaded with their dreams and all with the desire to invent a new life. Giuseppe, the eldest son, moved to New York where he immediately found a job as a pizza chef in an Italian restaurant. Antonio went to Madrid instead to open, incredibly, a Flamenco school while Gennaro who from an early age dreamed of becoming a painter, despite never having picked up a brush, went to Paris where he found a job as a night watchman in a garage that allowed him, during the day, to cultivate his art. Years pass and Giuseppe is the first to make a fortune with his work, to the point of deciding to open a large pizzeria in New York. Antonio follows him closely and after abandoning the castanets, opens the largest pizzeria in Madrid and finally also Gennaro in 2000, returning to his homeland, but without having given up painting, on the contrary, he will open a pizzeria in that of Milan. If destiny is marked in the stars, perhaps at that moment this was written in their skies: the time has finally come to reunite. Then they recovered their father's business in 2003, gave life to the Fratelli la Bufala brand, which over the years won one success after another, and was then represented in over seventy restaurants in every corner of the globe, from Naples 🇮🇹 to Scottsdale 🇺🇸
