Training & Coaching

Ovia Aquatic Training and Coaching

Providing a variety of programs for synchronized swimmers seeking to develop their aquatic skills and technique capabilities.

Sessions for beginners, recreational and competitive synchronized swimmers. Private individual classes and group camps. Training designed for any age and skill level.

All sessions taught by world-class professionals under the direction of Ovia's Aquatic Training and Coaching Director, Ludivine Perrin-Stsepaniuk.

Synchro athletes from across the globe travel to Las Vegas to participate in the highly acclaimed Ovia Training and Coaching programs.

"In 2017, Ludivine led the National Elite Camps in Las Vegas and did a fantastic job. The camp received great reviews from all athletes and has been a great success. Ludivine is very enthusiastic yet disciplined. She understands the sport at every level, has been involved internationally and at club level. In the National Elite Camp like in her club, she surrounds herself with key experts in gymnastics, acrobatics, dance and the arts. She approaches the sport from a global perspective and tries to develop a love for the sport and its artistic side in every athlete."
