Ludivine “Ludi” Perrin-Stsepaniuk Named USA Synchro 12&Under National Team Head Coach

(LAS VEGAS, NV) February 20, 2018 – Renowned synchro swimmer and coach, Ludivine “Ludi” Perrin-Stsepaniuk, was named the 12&Under National Team Head Coach by the USA Synchro organization.

Perrin-Stsepaniuk was recruited by Myriam Glez, USA Synchro CEO/ High Performance Director (HPD) to fulfill the role as National Team Coach. Reporting to Glez, the position is responsible for the implementation of the 12&Under National Team strategy and training following the guidelines set by the HPD.

A European trained athlete, Perrin-Stsepaniuk has a long list of credits in her competitive and professional synchronized swimming career including earning European National Institute of Sport, Expertise and Performance (INSEP) titles and as an 11+-year performer in Le Reve, an aquatic centric show created by Franco Dragone. She is currently Head Coach of the Nevada Desert Mermaids Synchronized Swim Team and President of Ovia Entertainment.

Glez notes, “In the summer of 2017, Ludivine led the National Elite Camps in Las Vegas and did a fantastic job. The camp received great reviews from all the athletes and was a great success. Ludivine is very enthusiastic yet disciplined. She understands the sport at every level, has been involved internationally and at club level. In the National Elite Camp like in her club, she surrounds herself with key experts in gymnastics, acrobatics, dance and the arts. She approaches the sport from a global perspective and tries to develop a love for the sport and its artistic side in every athlete.”

Perrin-Stsepaniuk’s unique training strategy includes a diverse selection of specialized athletes and performance instructors to provide a well-round experience and development for the athletes. A highly sought-after performer and choreographer, Perrin-Stsepaniuk has been featured in numerous TV, film and music videos, as well as in print.

“Apart from the technicality of the sport, I like to teach my athletes respect, teamwork, believing in themselves and helping each other,” states Perrin-Stsepaniuk. “As the Head Coach of these young athletes, it is important that my entire coaching staff works together to ensure the best quality training for premier performances in competition at their current level as well as ensure that these athletes have developed the skills and motivation to continue competing in 10 years.”
