

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. How do I get a stall?

A. Download the application form from the website. Complete the form with as much detailed information as possible including photos and insurances. Email all of the information to contact@redcliffejettymarkets.com. We have a 7-10 day turnaround time for all new applications. If you are unsuccessful you will be placed on a short term waiting list and we will contact you when an option for you trade is made available.

Q. Can anyone apply for a stall?

A. Yes. Everyone is welcome to apply including youth and charitable organisations.

Q. How often must I attend?

A. We have sites to suit every need and you are welcome to attend casually or permanently once the application process is complete. We have a strict booking process which will be outlined through correspondence with our office before you attend.

Q. How do we know where to set up?

A. We will communicate with you in writing once you have been accepted and we have established a start date. You will be provided with a full induction pack which will outline all of the relevant information you will require for your first attendance. Please read all of this information carefully as it will include all of the answers to your what when and how questions. We will also include the relevant safety information and bump in and out times.

Q. How much does a site cost?

A. We have a massive range of size sites and prices to suit. They generally range from $15 to $100 depending on your requirements and what your selling. For example, a food site has a different fee structure to a craft site.

Q. Do we have to have our own Equipment and Insurance?

A. Most stall holders have their own equipment and insurance. If you are just starting out or want to use our we do hire all necessary equipment fees and charges apply. We can underwrite on our insurance policy however fees and charges also apply.

Q. How often are the markets on and what times to you trade?

A. We trade almost every Sunday throughout the year. Official trading times are 8am-2pm.

Q. Can we bring our dog?

A. Yes we are animal friendly however please be mindful of the weather as the bitumen gets very hot for little paws. All council by laws must also be followed including cleaning up after your pets.

Q. What times are your office open?

A. Our office is open 8.30am-4.30pm Tuesday's and Fridays for stall holder enquiries.